Auckland Swiss Club

A special Film Evening was held at the Auckland Swiss Club on the 18th October, 1962, in the Professional Club, 12 Kitchener Street, C.1., screening films from Switzerland and other parts of the world. Some of them were in colour, spoken in French and English, showing not only the beautiful scenery of our country but also a good part of our industry, defence, traffic, train and civil aviation and the every-day life of our people at home.

A very good attendance enjoyed a most pleasant evening, which reached the highlights when coloured slides and other photos of the "Maskenball" were shown.

After the show coffee was served with Swiss pastries, which were—all gone—in no time!
