NEWS FROM THE EMBASSY

According to information received from the Swiss Broadcasting Services, their short wave programmes have included a series of talks concerning the Swiss Banking System. It was felt that a number of objective and well documented emissions should be broadcast for the information of interested listeners abroad. The texts have been prepared in collaboration with the Swiss National Bank and the Association of Swiss Banking Institutes. The transmission in the English language entitled "Swiss Banking—Myths and Reality" takes place every Wednesday at about 08.15 GMT (8.15 p.m. local time) over the Frequencies 9 590 kg; 11 755 kg and 17 890 kg. These series will last until the month of October.

FOR THE MUSIC LOVER

The "Camerata Bern" will be touring New Zealand during October. All eleven string players of whom the group consists, have been members of the Master Class at the Bernese Academy of Music under Max Rostal. These most gifted pupils were given 4 years of intensive training before their debut in 1962. Watch your local paper for this most enjoyable event.

FUTURE OVERSEAS TRAVELLERS

The Committee of the Swiss Society has asked me to look into the possibility of organising future Group Travels to Switzerland, somewhat on similar lines as it was done in 1964 for the Expo in Lausanne.

I am prepared to do so and would ask interested Members to let me know which year and which month they wish to travel and when they intend to return.

Important: It is imperative that all must be financial members of the Swiss Society, either as a financial member of the Society only or as a financial member of an affiliated club, such as the Auckland, Hamilton, Wellington and Christchurch Swiss Clubs, and therefore being in receipt of the "Helvetia."

It is understood, that at this stage no obligation exists on the part of the intending traveller.

SWISS PRODUCTS ON DISPLAY AT N.Z. TRADE FAIR

Switzerland will be represented at the New Zealand International Trade Fair '67, to be held in Wellington between August 17th and September 2nd, 1967. The Swiss Court is occupying 1600 sq. ft. of floor area in the lower level of the Wellington Show Building. The displayed goods will show to the public some outstanding items reflecting the best Swiss products. Ten different makes of the most finest Swiss watches will be displayed with a total value exceeding $16,000. Other products of the world-famous Swiss precision Industry will include an automatic precision lathe, an injection moulding machine, movie cameras and projectors, sewing machines and electrostatic spraypainting equipment. The Swiss Textile Industry is well represented and will display some of the latest creations in fabrics, both cotton and silk, plus a most attractive selection of printed handkerchiefs. A special attraction will be the Swiss Tourist Stand where a projection of coloured Swiss scenery films will invite the public to stay in Switzerland during their next trip through the continent.

August 29th has been set aside as Swiss National Day, and on this occasion some special movies will be shown in the Show Building Theatrette. The Swiss Court will be attended by a charming Hostess (Miss Gaby Mueller), dressed in National costume (kindly lent for this occasion by one of our Swiss compatriots in Hamilton). Miss Mueller will distribute to every visitor of the Court a little Swiss Flag as a souvenir.

The Swiss Court has been organised in conjunction with the Swiss Embassy by an Organising Committee comprising three Swiss compatriots residing in New Zealand (Messrs N. Zoelly, H. Erb, L. Eichmann) and Mr F. G. Dobbs (N.Z. Agent for the Horlogere) and with the support of the following Swiss organisations: Swiss Office for development of Trade (OSEC), Swiss Watchmakers Federation (FH), Swiss Air Transport Ltd (Swiss-air), and 36 Swiss firms represented in New Zealand through their N.Z. agents.

The Swiss Fleet: A Few Figures

At the end of last year, the Swiss merchant fleet numbered 32 vessels with a total capacity of 281,615 DWT (Dead weight tons) as opposed to 31 vessels and 267,297 DWT at the end of 1965. It comprised 9 ships between 1 and 5 years old, 8 from 5 to 10 years old, 10 from 10 to 15 years old, and 5 from 15 to 20 years old. The average age of the fleet was therefore 9½ years. At the same time, the total crew of all these ships numbered 973
