JASS - ABIG IN AUCKLAND

A good muster followed the invitations to the game evening. Of course the tempting supper of Fondue Bourignon was another good reason to go out. Six different salads and various sauces were served, wine to one's personal choice, French bread and enough of the best meat to satisfy any gourmet. Candlelight gave a real cosy atmosphere to the evening which began with the card competitions, which lasted for about three hours. With a lot of hard thinking, accompanied by good and bad luck, Charlie Rickenbach managed to score the highest result, followed by Paul Wuetherich and Irene Meienberg. This was another happy Club night for which we thank the Committee.

WORKING BEE

Another remarkable day was Sunday, 26th October. In great weather about 30 eager members met up on the farm for a working bee. There weren't even enough slashers for the men, and never before did we chop more gorse in one day! We will have another turn-out before the year ends, and hope for the same good attendance — then we will be ready to meet the crowds on picnic day!

Hamilton Swiss Club

The N.Z.B.C. Hamilton radio station has requested our Club to produce a programme of a typical Swiss Christmas celebration. Bearing in mind that the majority of our compatriots hail from German-Swiss cantons, it was decided to rehearse a family Christmas that will raise memories of childhood in many a Swiss.

The N.Z.B.C. has made similar requests in other cities to other nationality groups and a special Christmas broadcast will be compiled and presented as yet another 'On stage in New Zealand' feature entitled "Christmas in Foreign Lands", a one hour programme.

The broadcast date will be 23rd December, at 8 p.m. from National stations (not commercial ones). As this is a nation-wide feature, check in the 'Listener' as to which is your nearest local national station.

We do not intend to give you a description of what we have compiled, but hope you will enjoy our presentation, which we have tried to shape as authentic as possible but at the same time we are fully aware of the fact that a blueprint uniformity of Christmas celebrations does not exist in our homeland.

FONDUE EVENING

About 25 people attended the evening arranged by the Christchurch Swiss Club in the Appenzeller on October 21st. A long table was set up in the Coffee Lounge and on this were placed pots of cheese fondue and hot oil for the meat fondue. Everyone started eating and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Chilled red and white wine was served during the evening along with potato salad.

Things began to liven up just before 12 o'clock and a few people were dancing and singing. The evening (or morning) concluded finally at 1.30 a.m. and the empty bottles of wine stood at thirteen!

Our sincere thanks go to Wendy and Bon for the loan of their Coffee Lounge and their untiring work in preparing the fondue.
