Hamilton

Past Events:

On Sunday November 1 close to 40 keen walkers of the Hamilton Swiss Club met at the parking lot at the Southern enclosure of the Maungatautari Scenic Reserve. For those who do not know about this unique reserve in the heart of the Waikato: Maungatautari is a forested, extinct volcano

Sandrine Smith with her children and Elisabeth Hess in the access gate where 3,400 hectares of land are being restored through the installation of a 47km long pest-proof fence. Entrance through the fence is via electronic gates, almost like at a high security prison. Only one of the doors can be opened at a time. This is to prevent rodents and other animal pests sneaking into the enclosure. Moreover, the park volunteers present on the day asked us to search through our backpacks, just in case a mouse had hidden in one of them.

After we all successfully completed this inspection - no mouse found! - we entered the park and the walkers, among them many families with younger children, tackled one of the loop tracks. Later we all met at the viewing tower in the centre of the enclosure for lunch. The sun was out but in the shade of the forest it actually felt quite chilly. Luckily, there was sun at some spots and also on top of the viewing platform so those without a warm sweater could bask in the sun like lizards.

The fence

After lunch and some more exploring of bird feeding stations and nest sites we all made our way back to the parking where it was time to say goodbye. Thanks to all who made their way out to Maungatautari that day. It tells the committee that there is a demand for such family events. KH

Future Events:

Families are asked to bring a plate of baking to share. Ursula will present a story in which all

Past Events:

Fondue evening 17 Oct - The Fondue evenings seem to be the runner at the Wellington Swiss Club, at least when it comes to participant numbers. This time the committee decided to set a cap at 100 guests, and the places filled quickly. Thanks to Roland's idea to set up the tables in a slightly different way there was enough room for everyone to move around. The evening started with Glühwein and vegetable sticks served with a dip. About an hour later, the fondue was served. We're not sure what exactly made the difference, but based on feedback it tasted even more yummy than in May, and it seemed that it was served faster. Maybe people involved in preparing the fondue gathered good experience in May in catering for large fondue fan numbers and were able to show off their expert fondue preparation skills. Fondue was also accompanied by a tasty mixed salad. The meal was rounded off by a lovely dessert. The evening was also enjoyed by a remarkably high rate of younger customers. The committee would like to thank everyone for their contribution, notably Max Fuhrer for organising and preparing the cheese, and the many busy kitchen hands. I'm already looking forward to the next Fondue, presumably taking place some time in late May next year, even though I may not be able to attend because our third baby is due at around that time too. IR

Garage Sale 7 Nov - I am always amazed by the quantity of treasures that arrive at the clubhouse for the garage sale. Our two faithful organizers, Heinz Jäggi and Peter Hynes, stayed in the clubhouse overnight (not to guard the treasures but to get the display ready for the next morning!). The dealers usually arrive well before 7.00 am, and this year was no exception. They packed up what they knew they could sell and were gone by 7.15am.

There were not as many clothes as in other years and our regulars were a bit disappointed.

Barbara displayed a table with all sorts of knick-knacks, jewellery, watches, vases, glasses, dishes and more in real Swiss "Flohmarkt" fashion. Thanks Barbara, I am so pleased you enjoyed the garage sale!

Midday arrived quickly. There were quite a few items left; however, the Garage Sale is still a good fundraiser for the clubhouse roof. Thank you, Heinz and Peter for your effort, and Barbara for your help - and thank you to all the club members and friends who contributed towards the garage sale! V.M.

Beach Party Sunday 1 November - Our Beach Party started rather grim and drizzly, but come lunch time the clouds disappeared and we enjoyed the most gorgeous afternoon at Cornwallis Beach! The barbeque lunch was yummy and we all had a great time catching up and getting to know a few new faces. The kids loved running around and had a wonderful time playing. Thanks to everyone who made it a special day!

Pub night Friday 6 November at Sales Bar, Auckland. What a great opportunity this was to chat to some NZ Swiss that we don't see regularly. Amazing venue. Thank you all for coming, and thanks to the Swiss and Knusprig Team for organising it.

Rock Walking with Bernhard Spörli, Sunday 15 November. 40 members and friends enjoyed a fabulous and very interesting day, walking from Army Bay across the Whangaparaoa Peninsula to Tiri Channel, Pink Bay, and around Whangaparaoa Head back to Army Bay. Thank you so much Bernhard Spörli for your excellent introduction to the fascinating geology of the area. All these lines now suddenly mean so much more. It made me feel rather unimportant to hear about the amazing forces that have been around tens of millions of years ago, and still are.

THE AUCKLAND SWISS CLUB LOOKS FORWARD TO 2010

Picnic at the Swiss Farm, Sunday 14 February: Lunch, Games, catch up with your friends.

Beach Party: The Swiss and Knusprig Team will be organising another beach party probably in February or March (details to follow) and we hope to get a great amount of people joining us. We will be doing games and fun stuff for all the kids with prizes for everyone, so watch out for this future event!

Pub nights: Our aim is to have our pub night at a different location every month so that we all get to know new places and also so that the travel times vary from time to time. If you have a great pub round the corner from where you live or know of a lovely bar to meet, why don't you let us know and we'll organise a monthly pub night in your area? Please email swiss@zurbruegg.co.nz for any suggestions you may have, would love to hear from you!

Jass coaching! Did your grandmother teach you how to play Jass, but you are not quite so sure now? A bit worried about all the 'professionals' in the Swiss Club? Your chance is coming: We will have a coaching session early next year for beginners and rusty players. If you have any particular suggestions re time for coaching, let one of the committee members know.

The Swiss Club Year plan: 2010 promises to be another great year, with many events for the knusprig and the runzlig, the bald and the hairy, the sedentary and the sporty ones, the shooters, jassers, and all the rest of you. See Swiss Club website and mark your diary.

LIKE TO ENJOY A WEEKEND AT THE SWISS FARM?

Why don't you take your family to the farm for a weekend out? An ideal place to let the kids roam, and have a rest; it feels like miles away from the bustle of the city. You can take your tent, or just a bit of foam and sleep in the hut. Water and the toilet are available, but no kitchen facilities. All your rubbish must be taken home.

Free for Swiss Club Members and immediate family. There is a charge for larger parties.

Booking is absolutely essential: Contact Marcel marcel@igrin.co.nz or 09 4135338.

LOOKING FOR A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR A FAMILY MEMBER?

Why don't you give your adult children / elderly parents / brothers and sisters a gift membership for the Auckland Swiss Club? Join them now - you will get a Gift Card for them, and 16 months membership for the price of 12, as the Swiss Club year finishes end of March. Complete Membership Application form on website, or contact Heidi heidi.wilson@hotmail.com 4789751.
