La nouvelle société helvétique

Objekttyp: Group

Zeitschrift: The Swiss observer : the journal of the Federation of Swiss Societies in the UK

Band (Jahr): - (1923)

Heft 125

PDF erstellt am: 28.04.2024

Nutzungsbedingungen

Die ETH-Bibliothek ist Anbieterin der digitalisierten Zeitschriften. Sie besitzt keine Urheberrechte an den Inhalten der Zeitschriften. Die Rechte liegen in der Regel bei den Herausgebern. Die auf der Plattform e-periodica veröffentlichten Dokumente stehen für nicht-kommerzielle Zwecke in Lehre und Forschung sowie für die private Nutzung frei zur Verfügung. Einzelne Dateien oder Ausdrucke aus diesem Angebot können zusammen mit diesen Nutzungsbedingungen und den korrekten Herkunftsbezeichnungen weitergegeben werden.

Das Veröffentlichen von Bildern in Print- und Online-Publikationen ist nur mit vorheriger Genehmigung der Rechteinhaber erlaubt. Die systematische Speicherung von Teilen des elektronischen Angebots auf anderen Servern bedarf ebenfalls des schriftlichen Einverständnisses der Rechteinhaber.

Haftungsausschluss

Alle Angaben erfolgen ohne Gewähr für Vollständigkeit oder Richtigkeit. Es wird keine Haftung übernommen für Schäden durch die Verwendung von Informationen aus diesem Online-Angebot oder durch das Fehlen von Informationen. Dies gilt auch für Inhalte Dritter, die über dieses Angebot zugänglich sind.

Ein Dienst der ETH-Bibliothek ETH Zürich, Rämistrasse 101, 8092 Zürich, Schweiz, www.library.ethz.ch

http://www.e-periodica.ch

THE SWISS OBSERVER.

OCTOBER 27, 1923.

Swiss Postal Travellers'

ZENITH THE ZENITH WATCH CO. (Gt. Britain) 119, HIGH HOLBORN, W.C.1. Factories: LE LOCLE (Switzerland)

LA NOUVELLE SOCIETE HELVETIQUE.

MEETING OF THE COUNCIL on Wednesday, 17th' October, 1923, at 74, Charlotte Street, W.1.

1. The Treasurer regrets having to report no admissions. He deplores the death of Mr. Albert Ehinger, and announced 13 resignations, leaving the membership at 388. 87 members are still outstanding with their 1923 subscription and are hereby reminded kindly to assist the Treasurer in his work with their remittances. The Council dehis work with their remittances. The Council de-cided to strike off the list of membership 34 mem-bers who have failed to pay, after repeated appli-bers who have failed to pay, after repeated appli-cations, their 1922 subscriptions; the total present membership is therefore 354. 2. The President read a letter from the Presi-dent of the Manchester Group, who reported to us that this Group had been dissolved. On the other hand, we had a letter from the newly formed Group at Innsbruck.

3. Some information was given on the Annual Meeting of the Nouvelle Société Helvétique, which took place on October 13th and 14th at Chexbres. The existing of the Notverle Societe The reflecting, which took place on October 13th and 14th at Chexbres. Dr. Krafft had read a report by the Swiss Minister in Rome, Georges Wagnière on the "Représentation extérieure de la Suisse," and Dr. Oeri had reported on the possibility of a Swiss foreign policy. A resolution concerning the Zones Question and con-demning the French decision very strongly was adopted. Dr. A. Krafft, the second secretary of the Auslandschweizer Secretariat, having resigned, a successor was nominated in his place in the person of Mr. Pierre Wyss of Neuveville. The S.S.E. will be transferred to Fribourg by November 1st. 4. Mr. Spelterini, the balloon pilot, having, through the Legation, approached the N.S.H. with the intention of giving a lecture in London, the Committee replied that they would be glad to help him morally, but that we were not in a position to assist him financially in this venture, either directly or indirectly.

to assist him financially in this venture, either directly or indirectly.
5. Dr. Daeniker, a member of the Council, has resigned owing to his departure to the Continent.
6. Messrs. Bloch, Golay and Kiefer were apointed delegates of the N.S.H. to the Swiss Sports Committee for 1924.
7. It was announced that the Treasurer and the Secretary had started on a financial campaign, with a view to securing the maintenance of the Secretariat in 1924, and that the Committee would report to the Council on December 19th, when the necessary decisions with regard to the future of the Group and the Secretary involves, will be taken.

Group and the Secretariat, which the departure of the present secretary involves, will be taken. 8. The article by Mr. Theo. Weber in The Swiss Observer of October 6th was discussed, and it was decided to arrange lectures in future on a different

9. The report of the Concert Committee was read, and an oral report by the President of the Entertainment Committee, concerning the forth-coming Dinner on November 13th, was heard and approved. 10. It

10. It was agreed that the January lecture should be held in conjunction with the Swiss Mercantile Society on a medical subject. The President of the Swiss Mercantile Society will start the neces-

Society on a medical subject. The President of the Swiss Mercantile Society will start the neces-sary preparations. 11. The Secretary made a few communications relating to his propaganda work: (a) The Sub-Committee to the League of Nations Union watches the development of the Zones question, and intends, at the opportune moment, to take the matter up in connection with the League of Nations Union; (b) A review on the Helvetic Bibliography has appeared in the Bernese paper, the Bund, giving great credit to the London Group for this work; (c) A "Bibliographie sur Phistoire littéraire de la Suisse Romande" has been compiled by the Secre-tary. Copies are at the disposal of members; (d) The two informal gatherings of September and October were very satisfactorily attended. The average attendance was eleven. The November In-formal Gathering (26th November) will take the form of a gratis concert of modern Swiss music. The following artists have kindly consented to execute compositions by modern Swiss composers: Margaret Woodhouse, George Woodhouse, Violet Clifford Austin and Ronald Chamberlain. A grand piano will be put at our disposal. The concert is particularly intended to introduce contemporary Swiss music to English music lovers and critics. All music lovers, British or Swiss, are cordially invited. No special invitation will be sent out, but a note will appear in The Swiss Observer; (e) The Echo Suisse reported that the Committee of the National Council which deals with the Military Tax Law has declared itself in favour of the abolition of the passage which states that papers of identification can be withheld from those who the abolition of the passage which states that papers of identification can be withheld from those who are in arrears with their tax. It is hoped that the products are something more than merely perfectly accurate timepieces. They are the individualized creation of useful things in a beautiful way.

Sold by leading Jewellers everywhere.

National Council will adopt the same view when debating on the Bill. There is a slight hope that the Matriculation Tax will be reduced by the be-ginning of 1924, but one may have to wait longer; (f) A letter from the Swiss Minister contained the passage: "I am afraid the plan for a Swiss Art Exhibition will not materialise, as the authorities are not in a position to assist us"; (g) The Secretary has continued his endeavours to find pub-lishers for translations of Swiss books in different directions. He is also taking special steps to propa-gate the knowledge of Hodler in this country; (h) The "Guide" for young Swiss, which the Entr'Aide Committee has compiled, was distributed. Copies are at the disposal of members. Dr. PAUL LANG, Secretary.

Dr. PAUL LANG, Secretary.

FOR THE SWISS POOR.

FOR THE SWISS POOR. If you attend the Grand Charity Concert on October 31st in Caxton Hall, the patronage of which has kindly been accepted by the Swiss Minister, you will not only enjoy yourself immensely—you that the same time help a very worthy institu-tion. The Swiss Benevolent Society, towards which he whole proceeds of the evening will go without any deduction—a magnanimous donor having de-frayed all the expenses—does most useful work in his Colony of ours, and the rank and file can now and then well afford to take stock of it. No less than $314 16s, were spent in 1922 on old-age pen-sions for aged fellow-countrymen, and the casual of the magnitude of distress and desolation hidden of the magnitude of distress and desolation hidden of the three participating societies—the Choral Society, the Swiss Church Choir, the Swiss Institute and old compatriots, by buying as many tickets as you he there participating societies—the Choral Society, the Swiss Church Choir, the Swiss Institute and old compatriots. Differed themselves for the good dase—all the better. If you can't come, buy you this gold deed! Tickets, at S., S., and 2s., and society, the Swiss Church Choir, the Swiss Institute in from the Society and the first-class vocal and instrumental solats who have offered themselves for the good asse—all the better. If you can't come, buy you this gold deed! Tickets, at S., S., and 2s., and 2s., and a caston Hall. The doors will be openeed at 7.30 the programme will be gone through without "encores" being granted. Start: 8 p.m. sharz, -P.L

Printed and Published for the Proprietor, P. F. BOBHRINGER, by THE FREDERICK PRINTING CO. LTD., at 21, GARLICK HILL, LONDON, E.O.4