A Yugoslav delegation headed by Deputy Minister of Industry Filipovic has arrived at Berne with a view to increasing trade between Switzerland and Yugoslavia. Parleys will also be conducted on the problem of Swiss interests affected by nationalisation in Yugoslavia.

The new Swiss-Norwegian commercial treaty concluded at the end of June had to take into account the fact that the Swiss market can absorb only a small quantity of Norwegian products, and that Norway is unable to pay in gold or currency for a large part of her imports.

It is not yet possible to estimate to what extent Marshall Plan credits to Norway would allow that country to pay for these imports. The only way out of this difficulty was to reduce the rate of Swiss exports.

Another step taken in view of Norway's currency shortage, and which is not favourable to Swiss creditors, is that one instead of two overdue interest payments will be made together with current interest on municipal and industrial Norwegian loans on the Swiss market, such as Three per Cent. Oslo. Four per Cent. Societe Norvegienne de l'Azote, and Five per Cent. Det Norske Zinkkompani.

Britain's exports to Switzerland, which in recent months have shown a marked upward trend and reached the monthly figure of Frs.38.5 millions at end-May, declined to Frs.32.7 millions during June.

Supplies of goods in the opposite direction, however, rose from Frs.10.4 millions to Frs.16.1 millions.

The U.K.'s favourable trade balance in June thus dropped to Frs.16.6 millions, compared with Frs.28.1 millions in the previous month.

A city man, wishing to take his family into the country went to look at a small farm with a view of renting it. Everything was to his liking, and negotiations were about to be completed, when the question of hiring also the farmer's cow came up. It was an excellent cow the farmer declared, and even after feeding her calf she would give six quarts of milk a day.

Then, suddenly observing the calf, he added.

"I'll tell you what I'll do, I'll hire the small cow, she's just about our size!"
