WORLD FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS TO GO TO APPENZELL

Enthusiasm for the World Championship football match in England extended even to Appenzell, the two Half Cantons of Appenzell-Inner-Rhoden and Appenzell-Outer-Rhoden in North-Eastern Switzerland. Using the North-East Swiss Tourist Association and the Swiss Football Federation as go-betweens, the enterprising owner of the largest hotel in the town of Appenzell has invited the entire British team, the 1966 World Champions, to spend a winter holiday in the attractive village at the foot of the Säntis. The reply was surprisingly fast in coming — and it was positive. But the Secretary of the British Football Association asked that the generous host be patient until June or July of next year, since the team, hurrying from one match to another, has no chance to think about holidays during the busy winter season.

IRON AND DIAMOND WEDDINGS IN SWITZERLAND

The former St. Gall Landammann and National Councillor Emil Gruenenfelder and his wife recently celebrated their Iron Wedding (65 years). He is in his 94th and his wife in her 90th year.

The following Diamond Weddings (60 years) have been reported:

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Voumar of Tramelan (Jura Bernois).

Mr. and Mrs. Karl and Luise Rutishauser of Kilchberg (Zurich), formerly of Oberuzwil (St. Gall) and in Milan for forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto and Paulina Brunner of Sibrach (Thurgau).

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Morgenthaler of Sutz-Lattrigen (Nidau), for 30 years in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Ruf of Kuettigen (Aargau).

Mr. and Mrs. Hans and Ella Mueller-Luedi, Schaffhausen; for decades Mr. Luedi was Secretary and President of the Musikkollegium in Schaffhausen.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert and Barbara Bolt-Stadelmann, Zurich.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel and Marie Zweifel-Indergand, Linthal (Glarus).

THE JURA

Clear, placid Leman ! thy contrasted lake,
With the wild world I dwelt in, is a thing
Which warns me, with its stillness, to forsake
Earth's troubled waters for a purer spring.
This quiet sail is as a noiseless wing
To waft me from distraction; once I loved
Torn ocean's roar, but thy soft murmuring
Sounds sweet, as if a Sister's voice reproved,
That I with stern delights should e'er have been so moved.

It is the hush of night, and all between
Thy margin and the mountains, dusk, yet clear,
Mellow'd and mingling, yet distinctly seen,
Save darken'd Jura whose capp'd heights appear
Precipitously steep; and, drawing near,
There breathes a living fragrance from the shore,
Of flowers yet fresh with childhood; on the ear
Drops the light drip of the suspended oar,
Or chirps the grasshopper one good-night carol more . . .

The sky is changed — and such a change ! O Night,
And Storm, and Darkness, ye are wondrous strong,
Yet lovely in your strength, as is the light
Of a dark eye in woman ! Far along,
From peak to peak, the rattling crags among,
Leaps the live thunder ! not from one lone cloud,
But every mountain now hath found a tongue;
And Jura answers, through her misty shroud,
Back to the joyous Alps, who call to her aloud.
