Einfuhrregelung für das Jahr 1957

Die neuseeländischen Behörden haben kürzlich die Einfuhrregelung für das Jahr 1957 bekanntgegeben. Die «Open General Licence» wurde auf weitere Waren ausgedehnt. Das neue Einfuhrregime ist in der nachstehenden Liste zusammengefasst. Ist eine Tarifposition oder Subposition in der Liste überhaupt nicht aufgeführt, so bedeutet dies, dass sämtliche darunter fallenden Waren ohne Bewilligung aus den «non scheduled countries» — worunter auch die Schweiz fällt — eingeführt werden können.

Régime d'importations pour l'année 1957

Les autorités néo-zélandaises ont récemment fait connaître le régime d'importations pour l'année 1957. La «Open General Licence» a été étendue à d'autres marchandises. La liste ci-après constitue un condensé de ce nouveau régime d'importations. Si une position ou une sous-position du tarif douanier ne figure pas du tout sur la liste, cela signifie que toutes les marchandises de cette position ou de cette sous-position provenant des «non scheduled countries» — dont la Suisse — peuvent être importées sans autorisation.

Taxe spéciale temporaire de compensation

Comme cela ressort de la communication parue dans la FOSC. N° 204 du 31 août 1956 (France et Algérie: Libération des importations), les mécanismes de boîtes à musique, repris sous la rubrique N° ex 92–10 C i du tarif douanier français, sont passibles à l'entrée en France de la taxe spéciale temporaire de 15 %.
