Eduard Sieber: Kolonialgeschichte der Neuzeit, Sammlung Dalp, Bd. 62, A. Francke, Bern 1949.

Aufstieg der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika und Rußlands zu Weltmächten — einer ehemaligen weißen Siedlungskolonie und eines eurasiatischen Staates, dessen asiatisches Territorium größtenteils altes Kolonialgebiet ist —, zunehmende weltpolitische Bedeutung weiterer ehemaliger europäischer Siedlungs- und Nutzungskolonien sowie Niedergang der europäischen Machtstellung, das ist die welthistorische Entwicklung, deren Zeugen wir sind. Denn dem geschichtlich und politisch interessierten, ja ganz allgemein dem nach den Ursachen gegenwärtigen Geschehens forschenden Zeitgenossen wird der Ver-
