Brief profile

The Association for Financial History (Switzerland and Principality of Liechtenstein) was founded in 1990 and initially concentrated on banking history. In 2000 the Association for Financial History expanded its activities to include the insurance industry, and now dedicates itself to historical and archive-related questions concerning the financial sectors of Switzerland and Liechtenstein.

The purpose of the Association is:

- to promote financial history research in Switzerland and Liechtenstein;
- to support research projects in this field;
- to make the results of financial history research available to the academic world, financial institutions and the public through publications, lectures and events;
- to make sure that valuable documents held by financial institutions are preserved, to develop their information management and archiving systems;
- to promote contacts between financial experts and historians and the interchange of know-how, and to cultivate cooperation with financial history researchers abroad.
