Youth Service—Skiing Camp 1974

The Youth Service of the Secretariat of the Swiss Abroad organises a skiing camp every year for young Swiss living outside their homeland (15-24 years old). Although the actual stay in Switzerland is the most important aspect, the young people devote their time mainly to skiing. Instruction is given in various classes, from beginners to experts. The evenings are given over to entertainment and some instructive and cultural hours, mainly concerning Switzerland and any problems of the young Swiss abroad. Experience has taught that the best atmosphere is obtained if participants from various countries take an active part, especially when they take the initiative and arrange some individual evenings themselves.

If application is made through an Embassy or Consulate, reductions in the camp price may be obtained in cases of need. The journey to and from Switzerland is made at the expense of the participants, as is the cost of ski-lifts. If stated on the application form, ski equipment can be made available. The camps are conducted by the head of the Youth Service and young Swiss from all over Switzerland. All participants are insured.
