Swiss Holiday Pass

The magic formula for trouble-free holidays
Free travel by rail, boat and postal motorcoach
No fixed itineraries

What is the Swiss Holiday Pass?

It's your own personal travel document enabling you to travel freely round Switzerland, using whichever form of transport you prefer – rail, boat or postal coach. In addition, many mountain railways and aerial cableways offer you reductions of up to 50 per cent.

What is the cost of the Swiss Holiday Pass?

	2nd Class (in Swiss francs)	1st Class (in Swiss francs)
For 8 days	100.–	140.–
For 15 days	140.–	195.–
For 1 month	195.–	275.–

Children between six and sixteen years of age pay half these rates.

Who is entitled to a Swiss Holiday Pass?

Anybody domiciled outside Switzerland and the Principality of Liechtenstein. All kinds of people find it invaluable – holidaymakers, businessmen, railway enthusiasts, amateur photographers, lovers of art and history, ramblers and even motorists wanting to give their car a rest.

Where do you get the Swiss Holiday Pass?

Outside Switzerland at branches of the Swiss National Tourist Office and at all major travel agencies supplying railway tickets.
