LOCAL NEWS - SOUTHERN AFRICA 4/81.

The Ambassador of Switzerland C.H. Bruggmann of Pretoria, The Consul General F. Adams, Consul F. Ernst and Vice-Consul R. Mueller of Johannesburg and Consul W. Altenburger of Cape Town, their families and colleagues . . . wish all the Swiss Compatriots in Southern Africa a prosperous and successful 1982 - Prosit Neujahr!

Dear Readers,

As most of the centres and groups have not yet established their yearly programme for the coming year there is not much news of coming events. Some of the highlights for 1982 are already known and as in the past please give them your support so that each of the Clubs can face the New Year with confidence and will be able to offer its members and all compatriots even more. Due to the ever increasing cost of producing the Swiss Review the "Guide" has partly been incorporated in this issues editorial. New entries will be classified under "late entries", with an alphanetical adjustment once a year. Before we forget it, thanks on behalf of the Swiss Consulates for buying the 1. Aug. Abzeichen also in 1981 so numerous! We have just been informed of a forthcoming visit to South Africa on the occasion of the Seilzieher Weltmeisterschaft in Cape Town and Aelplerfest in Johannesburg from 2. to 16. Nov. 1982, organised by Rast Reisen, Luzern, with Laendlermusik etc., this will be an opportunity for all Clubs to arrange some "gemuetliche Abende"!

What better way than to start the New Year with a little laughter (with thanks to the Swiss Club, Cape Town!).

It is perhaps necessary to be reminded sometimes that for 250 years i.e. from 1652 until 1806 nearly all the History of South Africa evolved on the relatively small area of todays Western Province. And so of course did the first events of the History fo the Swiss in Southern Africa take place there. A special word of thanks is herewith expressed to Mr. Adolf Linder, 19 Higgs Crescent, Higgovale, Cape Town. Tel.: 41-1120 who has in the last few months researched the history of the whole Cape Province most thoroughly and he deserves the support of all those Swiss which might have any piece of information. Please contact Adolf Linder and Merci beaucoup! The Swiss Soccer Club is holding its Annual General Meeting on Monday 1 Febr.

The AGM of the Club itself takes place on Monday 22nd February at 8.15 p.m. The Rifle Club has Shooting competitions on 27th January and in February and on 6th March.

The traditional Jassabend will in future take place every second Friday of the Month, i.e. for the first time on 8th Jan. 1982 at the new venue: the Switzerland Restaurant of Joe Amstutz at 5 Marine Parade, Durban.

Everybody welcome, and some typical Swiss Food will be available expertly prepared by the Chef Freddy Isler! The Swiss Gastronomy which probably was one of the first Swiss Imports to Durban's Grand old hotels is also well represented in the person of Willy Zurschmiede, owner of the Pick ' Shovel Steak houses and descendant from the traditional Bernese Oberland Hotelier Family of the Baeren of Wilderswil by Interlaken.

Shooting competitions every first Saturday of the Month so we see you on Sat. 6th Febr. and 6th March at the Hammarsdale Shooting Range.

As mentioned before, the book "There was a Man" a Biography on the Veterinary Sir Arnold Theiler is well worth reading. The Northern Cape and especially the area around Vryburgh plays quite an important part in the life and research of Sir Arnold.

It was at Armoedsvlakte near Vryburgh that he erected a Stone Platform, which by the way, is today a National Monument, and there he conducted the experiments with wind measuring instruments to find the cause and spread of the Cattle diseases.

It was also to Vryburgh that he travelled by train after landing in Cape Town in 1891 and from Vryburgh the most northerly railway station at the time it was by very bumpy Coach ride to Johannesburg! The good old times, and only some 90 years ago.

The best wishes are extended to all the Swiss in the Area by the acting committee of the Swiss Club Port Elizabeth! Es guets Neu! Two new Swiss arrivals are welcomed in P.E. from Johannesburg - Juerg and Rosy!

During the festive season there were also several visitors from Switzerland and despite some rainy days we are sure they all enjoyed their stay at the coast.

It looks like that at the beginning of November 1982 Folklore Group from Switzerland, might pass through P.E. Just imagine having real Yodellers, Alphorn and Fahnenschwinger with us for an evening! We will keep you informed of further developments.

Fuer das neue Vereinsjahr stehen bereits die Daten der ersten Schiessuebungen fest es sind dies Samstag 20 Febr. Samstag 29. Mai.

Treffen uns auf der Hamman Skietbaan, ausserhalb Windhoek, und es kann mit Karabiner, Sturmgewehr und Pistole geschossen werden. Der gemuetliche zweite Teil fehlt jeweils auch nicht. Fuer die Kinder wird ein Luftgewehr Schiessen organisiert, so dass es wirklich ein Ausflug fuer die ganze Familie ist. P.S. noch etwas geschichtliches: 1890 baute Kurt von Francois die alte Feste in Windhoek und 1892 vor 90 Jahren kamen die ersten Siedler in der Hauptstadt.

SWAZILAND

We are very pleased to inform the some two dozen compatriots in Swaziland that a new Consular correspondent has been appointed in the person of Mr. Andre Porchet, c/o Libbys, Box 77 Malkerns. Tel. (office) (0194) 8-3001. Did you know? Swaziland has an area of 17 360 sqkm or about half the size of Switzerland, from the lowveld of 225m it goes up to the highest peak of some 1860 m above sea level, and in some parts the scenery reminds one very much of Switzerland (plus the lovely sunshine all year round!)

LESOTHO

Armon Hartmann, Box 708, Maseru.
Tel. (0501) 2-2978 or 2-3034.

From Switzerland reaches us the news that the Verein der Freunde von Lesotho had the AGM sometimes in the middle of last year. After more than 7 years Toni Ebner has retired as president and he was also one of the founders of the Verein. The new committee is as follows: President: Josef Jeker. Vizepres. R. Vogt. Secretary: Lotti Loetscher, representative of SKMV: H. Diethelm. The new postal address is: Felsenegg 13, 6204 Sempach. Did you know? In 1862 the first Catholic Missionaires arrived in Lesotho and started a Missionstation which was called by the Basothos the "Ha Ba Roma" (the Missionstation of the Roman Catholics) which soon became just Roma, today the site of the University and the well known Hospital.

ZIMBABWE

SALISBURY: CLUB 8-4461 or 70-1946.

The Swiss Club Salisbury is pleased to invite all its members and compatriots to attend the Annual General Meeting of the Club which will take place in the second half of February, 1982.

The exact date will be made known to members or can be obtained from the Swiss Embassy.

90 Years ago in 1892 th Railway line from Beira to Salisbury was opened, and only a year later Hermann Moser a Swiss was working on the Railways there. This is just one of the many interesting items mentioned in the History of the Swiss in Southern Africa, and for which Mr. O. Berner Box W 52 Waterfalls, is always pleased to receive more information or give you details. Please give him your support!
