A very successful 1 August National Day celebration was held at the Maseru Club. Thanks to all those which attended. Now we have pleasure in publishing some details on one of the Swiss Organisation which is very active to assist Lesotho in the development of the country (special thanks from the Editor of the Swiss Review to his correspondent in Maseru A. Graf for compiling the report):

Helvetas Organisation in Lesotho

Helvetas is a private Swiss Development Aid Organisation, active in 17 countries worldwide.

Often their Organisations are supported of co-operate with Govt. Departments.

In Lesotho Helvetas is integrated in the Department of Rural Development and is responsible for the implementation of Village Water Supply Section, (VWSS).

The first delegates of Helvetas started the Project in 1978, and at that time VWSS was a small badly organised and not very productive section.

2 Delegates in Maseru and 2 in Butha Buthe in the North began to instal Water-supplies which technically and qualitative were most suitable to the local conditions.

The development of good and conforming standards of workmanship was the main aim during the first years.

Later it was realised that good quality workmanship could only be achieved with properly trained workers.

In 1981 therefore 3 qualified Construction Engineers arrived from Switzerland to intensify the Training and Education. One of these Experts is a teacher in a Trade School to train the Bricklayers. Then there are 4 Project Engineers and 4 Construction Engineers working on the Project.

LOCAL NEWS – SOUTHERN AFRICA 3/84

Dear Readers,

Important announcement by your Editor: We have decided to stop running after you to obtain news of the various communities! As you all know the Swiss Review is published quarter-yearly, most of you have co-operated very well and sent us the circulars, bulletins etc. which you publish or have written to us giving news of coming events, for those which do not send us news in future you will just be left out.

So please this is once more a special appeal to let us have news which are in your interest to communicate to the Swiss living in your area, only in this way you can obtain their support and be successful with your activities. The Swiss Review is a great media so why not use it!

Some more statistics this time about all the Swiss living in foreign lands, the Tagesanzeiger 11.9.84 tells us the following:

Swiss living abroad as at End 1983:	Europe	214 162
	America
	North & South	104 875
	Australia & Oceania	15 370
	Asia	11 259
	Africa	17 511
	Total	363 177

This is 9845 more than in 1980, of the total as above there are:

Swiss Nationality	154 613
Double Nationality	208 564

It gives us now pleasure to publish a special messages from the New Swiss Consul General in Johannesburg Theodor Dudli:

Th. Dudli has been very active already in the Swiss Colony and has also taken his first Tour to the country to visit the Swiss in Swaziland, see also report under that section, then he went to the Northern Transvaal where at the Clouds End Hotel of Mrs. Anderson in Louis Trichardt a reunion took place, and subsequently also at the Postillon Restaurant of the Bodmers in Tzaneen.

A great opportunity not only for the Dudlis to get to know the Swiss, but also for the compatriots in the various centres to meet between themselves.

Liebi Landslüt
chers compatriotes, cari concittadini
chers comburgais,

My wife Rosemarie and I greatly welcome this opportunity of introducing ourselves to the readers of the "Green Pages" of the SWISS REVIEW

When we arrived about 4 months ago from Montreal/Canada, on my 12th transfer, in the "Golden City", we knew right away that we were going to enjoy our new post. Not only is the climate here most agreeable (in Montreal we experienced winter minimum temperatures of - 35°C !), but South Africa is economically and culturally a most interesting country. It, moreover, offers many scenic areas and outstanding wildlife reserves. The South Africans produce and appreciate excellent wines which in fact, no doubt, contributes to their friendly hospitality. - There is, of course, no nation on this globe of ours without its share of problems. We as guests in this country do hope that a constructive dialogue between the various groups will lead in the coming years to a sound compromise and thence to a positive evolution.

Recently, we had the great pleasure of visiting our Swiss communities in the North of Transvaal and in Swaziland. In not too distant a future we shall contact also the Swiss in Natal, the Orange Free State and Lesotho.

I wish to warmly congratulate the Swiss in Johannesburg - Pretoria area on the beautiful Swiss Club at Halfway House. Thanks to the many facilities offered there it has become the focal point of our community.

We are looking forward to some interesting and rewarding years in Johannesburg.

Best wishes to one and all
Theodor P. Dudli

Mr. & Mrs. Th. Dudli

Born in 1924 at St. Gall, Mr. Dudli joined the Federal Department of External Affairs in 1945 and was posted successively to Warsaw, Katowice, Los Angeles, Bruxelles, Bagdad, Khartoum, London and New York. From 1978 to 1980 he was Swiss Chargé d'affaires a.i. in Seoul and in 1980 was appointed Swiss Consul-General in Montreal.

Mr. Dudli is married to Rosemarie born Reuter who grew up in Dresden and had her own physiotherapy clinic in Austria for close to 2 decades.

Before her marriage she was in charge of the physiotherapy unit of the Royal Hospital in Bagdad / Iraq.

More news from the Diplomatic "front":

Françoise Gloor of Johannesburg Consulate has been transferred to Santiago de Chile, she sends her thanks and best wishes to her many friends.

In Pretoria as successor of Dr. Kaiser Mr. Michel Coquoz has taken up his post as First Secretary at the Swiss Embassy and Miss Dudler is the Chancellor in place of Frl. Pfister.

To prove that some Clubs or Groups know how useful the Swiss Review can be for promotion of their activities just look at the special Advert of the Swiss Tennis Club Johannesburg who is making a membership drive.

Arrivederci, alla prossima

SWISS CONSULATE (021) 21-7633
SWISS CLUB, Stephen Way, Greenpoint
(021) 44-8405 or 22-1363 or 46-3331

10/11 November is the date of the Gruempeltournier-Soccer. And as every year this promises to be the highlight of the Club activities, Soccer teams with 5 players will compete for the many prizes including awards for the best fancy dress! The fact that only 48 mens team and 8 ladies teams will be allowed shows how popular this event is and it is therefore advisable to get there early. The Beerfest on Saturday night in the marquee at Greenpoint will be something special.

There is of course the possibility that next year a big Folklore Group from Switzerland will visit South Africa and be here during the Gruempel Tourmair festivities, but we will see in 1985!

"Wildschwein aus eigener Jagd" offers at the moment the Ticino Restaurant in Seapoint, with a Kaffee Kirsch and Villiger Kiel to round off!

The Cycle Club has taken off and those interested can obtain further details from Stefan Pfloksch. The Swissair-Competition of the Swiss Club has been won by Edi Sieger, congratulation.

Please remember the regular Pub Nights and the Jassen and Frauentraeffe. The Swiss Male Choir welcomes new members. Rehearsals every Monday night.

Those who have not heard yet please note that the short cut dirt road to the Swiss Club has been closed with immediate effect and the club must now be reached through VORNA VALLEY or of course Le Roux Ave. from the old Main Pretoria Road. The next big event on the Club Calendar is the GSNA Aelplerfest with Schwinger/Hornussen etc. on 3/4 November.

From Randburg Handball Club with so many Swiss Members reaches us the news that they will be organising on Saturday 27 October a big Beerfest on the occasion of the Towns 25th Anniversary.

Also the traditional six a side Soccer Tournament will be organised by them on 1/2 December at the Randburg Municipal Sports Grounds.

The Centenary Celebrations of Johannesburg are going to take place on 30 August - 6 Sept. 1986, the Swiss Community is already represented on the organising Committee, and will try to make something special for that big event.

We have received a special appeal which we are pleased to publish here: Blasmusik - Rand Wind Ensemble. Calling all Brass and Woodwind Amateur Musicians, come and join us at Blairgowrie Primary School, Gavin Ave. every Thursday evening 19.00 h for rehearsals. NATAL

TEL (031) 421-2141 (Res) 29-6223

During his recent overseas trip to the USA and Canada and of course Switzerland our President Fritz Waldburger had the pleasure in making contact with Swiss Rifle clubs in those countries. So today the Natal Swiss Club Jubilee Plate is displayed proudly in the beautiful Club House of Vancouver, and also in Tacoma, S. Francisco and Los Angeles, Durban and Natal-Swiss will forever be remembered at these places.

Talking about Jubilee there will be of course the Jubilaumsschiessen on 3 November but first we do battle against the Natal Commando and the Umkomaas Commando, this takes place on the 6 October.

To close off the 1984 events we all meet on the 1 December with the Families for a shooting competition and Picnic at Hammersdale.

Further news about a special delayed Jubilee event early next year will follow.

First Bloemfontein friendship/Folklore Festival.

this event will now take place

26/27 October under the patronage of the Mayor of Bloemfontein.

Our Small Swiss colony is going all out to be represented well at this event. Probably a Swiss Food stall will be run and definitely some Swiss costumes will be available.

Unfortunately it does not look like that the Swiss Choir from Johannesburg will be able to be with us as on that weekend the International Sangfees takes place in the Golden City. But we hope the Festival in Bloemfontein will become an annual event, and we look forward to next year.

Welkom by the way can offer Swiss Specialities all year round in the Restaurant Dromedaris, under Swiss Management.

The 1 August in Bloemfontein was celebrated at the Residence of the Burri family and was a great success.

First looking at past events the 1 August was again a highlight, with the presence this year of Mr. Bruggmann the Ambassador of Switzerland, and the new Consul General Th. Dudli, the Swiss Male Choir Johannesburg provided the entertainment, but unfortunately the attendance of the Pretoria Swiss could have been better. In the case of the Fondue Evening on 23 June the turnout was good and everybody enjoyed the excellent Fondue and the "liquids" which go with it. Thank you Sonja and Hans-Georg Bosch.

On the 8 Sept. at Deerdepoort the S.A. Schwinger Championships were held and Anton Venter the winner before T. Vermeulen, G. Snyman, H. Kisling and H. Klynsmith.

We all meet again on 5th October at the Swiss Club Halfway house for a skittle evening.

And do not forget Shooting competitions on the first Sunday of every month at the farm of family Arnold and of course Xmas party on 24 November.

Congratulations to our President and his wife on the birth of their daughter Michelle Renee on 23 May.

Then we also wish our founder member A. Portmann a speedy recovery.

The hard work put in by the helpers for the 1 August certainly paid off, not less than 48 people were present at the German Club and a very good time was had by everybody.

The Dinner of Chateaubriand was excellent and the Kaffee Schnaps which followed was probably one of the reasons that the last guest left near breakfast time!

So any Swiss living in the Area and who have not yet contacted one of the above do so soon, we will be pleased to hear from you.
