Bundesfeier 1984

Zur diesjährigen Bundesfeier traf sich die Schweizerkolonie am Freitag vor dem 1. August im Palais Royal am Ufer des Ontario Sees.

Angespornt vom Schweizerischen Generalkonsulat haben sich der Swiss Club Toronto, das Swiss Canadian Chamber of Commerce, die Canadian Swiss Cultural Association zusammengesetzt, um die mehr als 4000 in Toronto und Umgebung wohnhaften Schweizer einzuladen.

Das Echo war äusserst erfreulich, fanden sich doch mehr als 900 Personen in der mit Kantonsfahnen und Plakaten geschmückten Halle ein.

Nach der Begrüssung der Gäste durch die Veranstaltungsleiterin Monica Pitsch, ergriff als erster Redner der Präsident des Schweizer Klubs, Bruno Buser, das Wort. Dem gemeinsamen Singen der schweizerischen und kanadischen Nationalhymnen folgte die vom Tonband gespielte Ansprache des Bundespräsidenten an die Schweizer Kolonie im Ausland. Zum Abschluss des offiziellen Teils wandte sich Herr Generalkonsul Egger an die Anwesenden und dankte für das zahlreiche Erscheinen.

Nach einem Auftritt der Jodlergruppe Toronto und dem Lamponumzug der zirka 150 Kinder wurde noch bis in die frühen Morgenstunden zu den Klängen der Fred Rohrer Band getanzt und gefeiert.

National Day Celebration 1984

At our General Meeting last January the members were asked if our National Day should be celebrated on August 1st or on the preceding Saturday. Although the decision was not unanimous, most members favoured holding the event on August 1st.

To be on the safe side (so the Executive thought) 250 «Bratwürste» resp. «Cervelats» and 300 «Bürli» were ordered. Not even the most optimistic ones of us had anticipated that a crowd of over 250 would show up on Zumbuehls farm on a Wednesday night; and we apologize to those who didn't get a «Nussgipfel» – we promise you there will be enough next year.

After President, Peter Hausermann welcomed the crowd and read the message from «Bundes-präsident» Leon Schlumpf, our regular National Day visitors were hoping to be treated to a short performance by the «Jodlerklub» which has always been an important part of our National Day program. Unfortunately there were not enough Jodlers present and one couldn't help but feel sad that the «Jodlerklub» no longer takes pride in singing at this occasion.

As if that wasn't enough of a disappointment, the President then had to announce that due to the drought we have been experiencing in Southern Alberta this summer we had not received a fire permit and therefore couldn't light the bonfire that had been set up two weeks earlier. Would the fire hazard also mean that our traditional Lampionparade had to be cancelled? No way were we going to let down the dozens of children who had anxiously awaited that very special moment! As always, it was a moment of joy for young and old alike and to round off the evening in style someone finally treated us to some pretty fireworks. E.P.

 Alberta-Swiss Crossbow Association

On July 21, 1984, the Alberta-Swiss Crossbow Association celebrated the official opening of the new Crossbow facility, combined with the «Standartenweihe».

The Alberta-Swiss Crossbow Association was formally incorporated on February 10, 1984, under the laws of Alberta. As a joint project with the Alberta Provincial Rifle Association, who financed the material cost for the building, the crossbow facility was constructed over the last 14 months. Many hundreds of hours of donated labour where sacrificed by a handfull of dedicated crossbowshooters to make this facility, the first of its kind in Alberta, possible.

The colourparty was led by the Vancouver Standarte and three members of the Vancouver crossbow club, followed by the 38 members of the Kings Own Calgary Rifle military band. Behind them came a delegation of 12, dressed in middle age Swiss costumes complete with Hellebarde as honour guard for the new Calgary standarte. Mr. Paul Betschard, Vice President of the «Schweizerische Armbrust-Schützen-Verband» made a presentation to Michael Meier, the president of the Alberta Swiss Crossbow Association. Mr. Gil Hirst, President of Sports Alberta and Mr. Gordon Shrake, Member of the Alberta Legislature addressed the crowd on hand and welcomed the visitors from Switzerland. Mr. Hans Schalch presented the new standarte as a Gift to the Alberta Swiss Crossbow Association, it was gratefully accepted by its president, Michael Meier. In accepting it, Mr. Meier stated it was a sign of what co-operation between people can do and expressed the hope that it would be a sign of unity amongst the Swiss shooters in Calgary.

In total 57 shooters took part in the opening match, 19 Visitors

During the evening, the Swiss Jodelclub entertained us, one of the first moments I had to relax a little.

Inside the Clubhouse, with some of the finer members of the club and of course the Ehrendame.

from Switzerland, 4 from Vancouver and 34 local residents. In the evening 103 persons sat down to a typical western Barbecue steak dinner. Mayor Ralph Klein of the City of Calgary addressed the gathering, welcomed the visitors and expressed appreciation to the Alberta Swiss Crossbow Association for the international attention it has brought to the city of Calgary. The Swiss Jodel club Heimattreu entertained the crowd. Following this the presentation of prizes to the shooters as well as other Gifts to the Alberta Swiss Crossbow Association took place. Amongst the Gifts received was a beautiful Wanderpreis of an authentic Swiss Cowbell, donated by Mr. Albert Ruckstuhl.

The members of the Alberta Swiss Crossbow Association thank the members of the Vancouver Crossbow club for their help during the opening and look forward to a beneficial relationship between the two organizations.

Anyone reading this article and living within reasonable distance of Calgary, is welcome to come and visit the facility and join the members of the Alberta Swiss Crossbow Association.

Anlass war, wie in den letzten paar Jahren, gemeinsam mit dem Schweizer Verein von Vancouver veranstaltet worden. Wir hörten kurze Ansprachen der beiden Vereinspräsidenten, des Majors von Coquitlam und des Generalkonsuls der Schweiz, Herrn Hans Steinacher.

Wegen der langen Trockenheit konnten wir kein Feuer anzünden, aber die Kinder machten einen grossen Fackelzug. Das ganze Programm war umrahmt mit Liedern des Chores und den Klängen der Dorfmusik. Die Küche und Bar machten ein Grossgeschäft und es war fast zwei Uhr morgens als die «Continental» ihre Instrumente zusammenpackten und es war bereits Tag als die letzten aufhörten zu «singen»! Vielen Dank den Organisatoren und deren Helfern für den schönen Abend!

Visitors' Shoot - June 17, 1984

The Crossbow Club's decision to move the Visitors' Shoot from fall to summer, worked out surprisingly well. The only thing we should do differently next year is to pick a long weekend, so as not to see so many people leave right after dinner.

Otherwise, we could not have picked a better day. The weather was terrific and the competition keen. The organization well done and the fellowship spirit throughout the day, warm and congenial. The sponsors got what they were looking for - good feelings from happy people.

In the name of The Georgian Court Hotel and The William Tell Restaurant, I would like to thank all the members of the Vancouver Crossbow Association for their selfless and efficient help.

Thanks to Marlies and Paul Baumann, Mrs. Kappeli and Chef Kurt Kuhn for the preparation of the food. What would we do without you?

A special thank you for the tireless work of Michel Colemt and his family, in putting everything together, from bringing the «stuff» up to the chalet, to loading the dirty dishes back in the cars and returning them to the restaurant.

Many thanks to the members of the Mountain Range for letting us have their beautiful chalet for such a reasonable price.

Last but not least, I appreciate the many visitors who came to compete - and compete they did. Here are the results after trying and trying again.

PS. Many thanks to Mr. W. Schoenberger and Featherstone Wines for their donation of their excellent red and white beverages.
