Currency Markets

The international currency exchange markets constitute the largest markets of any kind in the world. As such they represent a major opportunity to the investor, but their complexity is in keeping with their size. They involve all the world financial centres and they move with tremendous speed, 24 hours a day. To make the most of the opportunities in these markets you need experience, international resources and quick reactions – a combination not open to many.

The European Banking Traded Currency Fund

provides this combination and is open to everyone.

How the Fund Works

EBC Trust Company (Jersey) Limited launched The European Banking Traded Currency Fund to provide investors with access to currency markets, under professional guidance.

At least 75 per cent of the portfolio is held in currencies and monetary instruments, while up to 25 per cent of the assets are traded on an intra-day basis in order to benefit from short term fluctuations in currency values.

United Kingdom Tax

The Fund should not incur UK tax on its income and shareholders are not liable to UK tax (except in respect of dividends) until they dispose of their shares, allowing the investor's interest in the Fund to grow at a compound rate free of tax until the holding is realised. This will be of particular interest to those saving for retirement or being able to realise their investments in a year in which their tax liability may be reduced. Alternatively, disposals (and therefore relevant tax charges) can be spread over a number of years.

The Managers

EBC Trust Company (Jersey) Limited is part of European Banking Company Limited – a merchant bank founded in 1973 by seven major European banks. EBC, who is advising the Managers and is well-known for currency trading, has access to a formidable concentration of financial expertise, both in the U.K. and throughout the world.

Swissair:

First Class, Business Class, Economy Class. On all aircraft. Worldwide.

Swissair offers a First Class, a Business Class, and an Economy Class on all its aircraft to some 100 destinations the world over.

First Class with exclusive luxury and service, on the ground as in the air. More and more airports have special check-in desks and tastefully furnished First Class Lounges. Along with much else, there are the comfortable Slumberettes in the First Class compartments of the DC-10s and B-747s, the three menus you can choose from on all long-distance flights, and of course the hostesses and pursers, who serve you choice wines with all the flourish of Haute Gastronomie.

Swissair also has a Business Class like no other. You can recognize this before takeoff by the greater seat pitch on all planes. Besides which the DC-10s have only 7 seats abreast, the B-747s only 8.

This allows the cabin crew, augmented for Business Class, on long-haul flights to serve you each hot course of the two choice menus individually. And you can relax in the new, wider seats as if in your armchair at home to enjoy one of the eight different musical programs through agreeably light electrodynamic headsets.

As a Business Class passenger, furthermore, you have conveniences that have already proved themselves: you can switch flights or interrupt your journey at any time, and on long-haul flights you can reserve your favorite seat when booking. In addition more and more airports provide separate check-in desks.

Naturally Swissair also has some surprises in store for the Economy Class as well. As the name indicates, these are particularly the reasonable tariffs.

Swissair's Economy Class is not only reasonable but also attractive. At meal times you can tell this by the real china, the proper cutlery, and wine-glasses; and also by the proverbial Swissair hospitality, which means not only waiting on you but looking after you.

Thus Swissair offers 3 classes consistently on all aircraft: a First Class for passengers who enjoy flying Swissair luxuriously worldwide; a Business Class for passengers who enjoy flying Swissair comfortably worldwide; and an Economy Class for passengers who enjoy flying Swissair at reasonable fares worldwide.
