Walter Roderer and Ruth Jecklin in Toronto

On April 18, 1985 the German speaking members of the Swiss Community in the greater Toronto area were invited to laugh with Walter Roderer and Ruth Jecklin. The two Swiss entertainers joined their artistic careers some 16 years ago to form one of the most successful cabaret groups in Switzerland.

While studying German and art in order to acquire a «legitimate» profession, Walter Roderer kept his dream of becoming an artist alive by going to acting school. His first years after university were hard ones. Some odd jobs now and then and small sporadic engagements at theatres kept him going.

The big turnaround came when Alfred Rasser, already then a popular figure on the Swiss entertainment scene, approached him to become a member of his group. From there he went to the Cabaret Federal and in 1957 became an independent artist. He has since had countless successes, but the biggest certainly remains «der Mustergatte», which has been filmed three times and performed 1,288 times!

Ruth Jecklin gave her debut at the «Stadttheater St. Gallen» followed by engagements in Hagen/Westfalen and the «Komoedie Basel». She was a visiting artist at the Rudolf Bernard Theatre and also made some television specials together with Rudolf Bernhard. She played roles in various international movies before her career took a turn when she became the partner of Gunter Philip, Hans Joachim Kulenkampf and, 16 years ago, Walter Roderer.

This successful team as we know it now was the first Swiss cabaret ensemble who ventured abroad. In 1967 they entertained the Swiss in Hong Kong, followed by tours to Nigeria, Liberia and Ghana. Many of us remember Walter Roderer and Ruth Jecklin from 1970 when they visited Toronto, Montreal and New York. They were in South Africa, Tokyo, Manila, Buenos Aires, Sao Paulo, Rio de Janeiro, etc. and we were particularly happy to have them back in Toronto this spring on their way to Vancouver and San Francisco.

It was interesting and enlightening to see that despite their popularity and extremely tight schedule they find time for hobbies.

Ruth Jecklin has started painting aquarelles (faces, heads and harlequins) only one year ago. She has already had four very successful exhibitions and critics view her work as attractive and fascinating.

Walter Roderer's hobby is architecture; he has designed and built two houses and, time permitting, he would love to build more.

Walter Roderer and Ruth Jecklin, two warm and charming human beings, two great entertainers. It was a real treat to have you in Toronto and we hope that your next North American tour will include a show in Toronto again!

The event took place at the Hart House Theatre in front of a super audience. The Hart House Theatre and their staff have been most helpful with all the preparations. I would like to thank them for their kind assistance and for accommodating our event at their lovely facilities. M. Pitsch

Theatre Group

Stürverweigerer

Noch ehe ich mich vor einem Jahr zum damaligen Theater äussern konnte, musste ich mich an dieser Stelle über die spärliche Besucherzahl beklagen. Das Auditorium im Esonian House war nur gut zur Hälfte gefüllt und bereits schon sah ich den kulturellen Untergang der Schweizergemeinde in Toronto.

Liebe Leser, Sie dürfen beruhigt sein, noch fliest Leben durch die Adern des Schweizer Brauchtums. An der diesjährigen Abendvorstellung war der Saal voll. Dies darf kaum nur dem schweizerischen Kulturempfinden zugestellt werden. Der Grund muss zum Teil in der gezielteren Werbung liegen. Nicht nur die Mitglieder des Schweizerclubs, sondern die ganze Schweizergemeinde wurde mit einer Anzeige erfasst. Durch Vermittlung einer Angestellten auf dem Schweizerkonsulat konnte mit dem Rundschreiben zum Cabaret Walter Roderers auch auf den Theaterabend aufmerksam gemacht werden.

Die Theatergruppe rekrutiert sich jedes Jahr aus wenigen «Getreuen», die abgewanderte Schauspieler durch frisches Blut zuersetzen trachten. Wer sich zum Spielen verpflichtet, steht vor vielen Wochen des Erlernens der eigenen Rolle, vor zahlreichen Proben und dem gemeinsamen Organisieren des ganzen Theaterabends. Nicht zu wundern, dass es dem einen oder andern langjährigen Mitglied trotz der Freude und Spasses am Theater nicht mehr gelingt, sich wiederum zum Mitspielen verleiten zu lassen. Es verdient besonderer Erwähnung, dass Werner Flury nun bald schon 10 Jahre regelmässig auf der Bühne steht und mit Dorly Wyss eine Schauspielerin zurückgewonnen werden konnte, die schon 1972 hier in Toronto zum ersten Mal mitspielte. Beide waren ideale Partner, geschaffen für die Rollen als Ehepaar Ritter. Sie gaben dem Stück mit ihrer Erfahrung nicht nur den zentralen Halt, den jüngeren Spielern waren sie Stütze und für die Zuschauer die altbekannten Gesichter, die immer wieder Lachen und Beifall ernteten. Die gesamte Gruppe überzeugte nebst wenigen «Laienverzögerungen» mit flüssigem Spiel und überzeugender Mimik.

«Stürverweigerer» ist ein Lustspiel, das aktuell wirkte und in vielen Situationen des Familienlebens nicht abwegig vom heutigen Schweizerdenken schien. Auf alle Fälle ertappte ich mich bei der von der Mutter an ihre Tochter nachgerufenen Mahnung, von ihrem Rendezvous nicht allzu spät nach Hause zu kommen, ähnliche Worte auch einmal gehört zu haben. Wir sahen dieses Jahr ein sehr gutes Theater, und ich darf der ganzen Gruppe wiederum gratulieren. Besonderen Dank an Heini Matthis. Als Regisseur übernimmt er die ganze Verantwortung mit der Arbeit und den Sorgen eines Theaterdirektors. Wir sahen sein Gesicht nur kurz am Theaterschluss. Seine bedachte und fühlende Leitung war aber durchs ganze Spiel erkennbar.

In den letzten Jahren ging unsere Theatergruppe nach den zwei Vorstellungen in Toronto auf «Tournee». Ihre Darbietungen rollten über die Bühnen von Mitchell, Ottawa und Montreal. Am kommenden 4. Mai werden unsere Spieler nach Ottawa reisen und auch dort die Schweizerleute mit ihrem «Stürverweigerer» unterhalten. Viel Spass an unsere Landsleute in Ottawa und gutes Spiel für unsere Gruppe!

Jass Section:

On April 20, 1985 the Jass Section held its annual dinner and dance at the Bond Place Hotel. Once a month since October 1984, 48 «Jasser» played for the various trophies. The best eight players from the first three evenings qualified for the championship play-off.

Annelies and Joe Wilhelm were again the gracious hosts for this year's final. On behalf of all of the participants and the Jass Section, I thank the Wilhelms again for their hospitality.

Otto Bischof, Erich Brunner, Doug Gross, Otto Marbach, Rene Tieche, Robert Walder, Herbie Weigl and myself played for the Freddy Mettler Trophy.

The Partner Jass was held in February and in March one half of the Section played the «Differenzler» while the other half played the ever so popular «Goerli Jass».

Erich Brunner is the first participant in 11 years who has won three championships in the same year.

It is also a first that no lady reached the top eight – but there is always next year.

10 Pin Bowling Section:

The Toronto Swiss Bowling League and Swiss National

Society of Montreal have competed in an Annual Tournament for over 50 consecutive years. As mentioned last month, on Saturday April 13, 1985, Toronto hosted Montreal at O'Connor Bowl West. The Sembinelli Challenge Cup was won for the 5th year in a row by Toronto who bowled an average of 151.2 per man versus Montreal's average of 146.2. The Toronto average was about 3 pins above their league average which definitely proves that they were ready. L. Maglietta made it a clean sweep for Toronto by winning the Bandi Cup with a high triple of 670 and the Dr. Jaccard Trophy with a high single of 241. A very special thanks to Consul General Peter Egger for the most gracious reception at his home following the tournament.

Our Season concluded with our year-end banquet on May 11, 1985. It was another successful year, we were able to get several new bowlers to fill out the teams; and we beat Montreal in our annual tournament for the fifth straight year. The final results for our season are shown below. Congratulations to all the winners.
