Departure of a friend

Mr Lucien Paillard has asked to be relieved of his duties with the Organization of Swiss Abroad in order to devote himself to other activities. He joined the Secretariat in the autumn of 1971 and was made Deputy Director in 1974.

Thanks to his dynamic personality, his talent as an organizer and his great interest in all questions concerning the Swiss Abroad, he became a much appreciated member of the Secretariat in no time.

As a specialist in Swiss social security, his name is the quarterly Review. He was in charge of coordination and world-wide distribution. The national campaign in favour of couples of mixed marriages was one of his major concerns. Furthermore, the French edition of the «Mini-profil de la Suisse» was due to his efforts to a high degree: he did a large part of the translation and brought the book up-to-date twice.

We should like to thank Mr Paillard warmly for the valuable services he has rendered.
