Why you should take measures today to have an insurance for tomorrow...

...or more precisely put: a sickness insurance, which you do not yet need? But which you can use whenever you come back to Switzerland – whether on holiday, or for ever.

For it would certainly be very comforting for you to know that in such a case you would be insured against sickness or accidents from the first day on. Without a long paper war. And at a premium price which will be calculated on the basis of your age today, i. e. at a much more favourable price than you would get if you waited a few more years before doing anything about it.

Thanks to an agreement with the Swiss Insurance Company Grütli, the Solidarity Fund for Swiss Abroad is now in a position to offer you exactly such an insurance. It will cost you just a few francs a month. But you will find that you have actually saved hundreds of francs in premium payments. And this year after year.

Coupon

Please send me on a no-obligation basis your detailed information brochure explaining the insurance policy which I can take up today so that I will pay lower sickness insurance premiums in the future.
