Dear Compatriots, 1991 - Switzerland's 700th Birthday

In reply to my question in the June Swiss Review: "As Swiss in New Zealand what would you like to do to commemorate this historic event?" I got the following letter from Iris Durney, Kaitaia: "We don't have a Swiss club here but those of us of Swiss extraction & our families get together every year for a dinner on August 1st. My NZ husband & my children all enjoy their association with Switzerland & I think it would be really good if we could bring a little bit of Switzerland to NZ next year to increase our knowledge & pleasure. An idea would be to have a concert (or a weekend even!) where folk music & dancing, alp horn etc. could be on the programme. National costumes could be displayed also. If this was organised in the August holidays possibly more families would be able to attend. Auckland might be a good venue or even have the programme repeated in several places. I have only visited Switzerland as a child & I know that my family would gain a lot of knowledge & fun from learning more of their ethnic background which we are all very proud of." It seems to me that the very active and talented Auckland Swiss Club should take up the challenge and organise something on the above lines, with the Taranaki, Hamilton, Wellington and Christchurch Swiss Clubs helping with the staging of the show in their area.
