700 Years of Confederation

A proud anniversary. And befitting the occasion a series of medals – a legacy to coming generations. Family heirlooms of enduring worth.

1991 is a jubilee year in the history of the confederation. Mark this memorable event by acquiring one by one a series of medals – a fascinating collection and a safe investment. At a special price of only 55.– SFr + postage for each of the 27 medals.

Available now at the official price of issue from Sir Rowland Hill AG.

With an antique finish to preserve their beauty for all time. In a specially designed display case to protect them – free of charge with the fourth medal.

Each canton is commemorated separately on a medal of its own. The unusual octagonal form combined with the contemporary design distinguishes this series from all other commemorative medals.
