FROM THE PRESIDENT

By the time these lines go to print the war in the Gulf will be either nearing the end. Or else it will have escalated further. Whatever the case will be, it has put a damper on many aspects of life. Disruption to family life for the members of the Allied troops. Tourism will be curtailed as the shadow of terrorist acts hangs over many airlines. The uncertainty of the Western World what the long-term consequences will be. It has, no doubt, put a grey cloud over the 700 years celebrations and festivities. So we should reflect that nothing in this life is guaranteed and always subject to rapid changes. Maybe a Switzerland without an army would be a bad idea. It is better to be prepared, as recent events have shown, there is always a Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin and now a Saddam. It also should inspire us for a more moderate life-style with less wastage, greed and consumerism. Will our present appetite for resources leave anything for future generations? I hope the clouds of war will disperse and the plans of the many compatriots who are intending to visit the homeland will not be interrupted. My best wishes are with you all.

Andre Schleicher
