Anniversary Day Celebrations in Vancouver

— August 1, 1991

To commemorate the 700 years of Switzerland, Swiss Week in Vancouver (July 28 - August 5, 1991) was proclaimed by Vancouver Mayor Gordon Campbell, and by the Province of B.C.

The August 1st anniversary day celebrations were staged at the Vancouver Museum which provided their entire facility and support of staff for the programmed events, which were also supported by the H. R. MacMillan Planetarium.

The daytime program was launched with the motto, "Visit Switzerland free, at the Vancouver Museum" — as the Museum's Board of Trustees allowed free access to the public to view the exhibition, "Face to Face with Switzerland", which was created by the Art Council of Switzerland PRO HELVETIA and included 120 artifacts especially selected by Mdme Nicole Desjardins of the Musée de la Civilisation de Québec, to reflect the country's savoir faire and originality. More than 2000 visitors, young and old, enjoyed the historic journey into 20th century Switzerland, while the 34 musicians of the Frenesi Swiss Youth Orchestra, under the direction of composer/conductor Roland Fink, filled the area with the delightful sound of folk music of the four Swiss cultures, as well as of the six continents. As part of the Swiss Culinary Week, a special luncheon in the Museum's restaurant featured typical Swiss menu items prepared by leading chefs of some of the most prestigious hotels and restaurants in Vancouver.

In the afternoon, visitors were able to relax and view a program of Swiss films, featuring "Red and White" from Swissair, "The 125th Anniversary Climb of the Matterhorn", and "Visages Suisses". Also offered for visitors' enjoyment were demonstrations of traditional Swiss artisan skills. Coordinated by Werner Rutishauser, as many as 50 volunteers of the Swiss Society of Vancouver displayed the unique skills of watch-making, home culinary specialties, the intricacies of hand-tooling, Swiss yodeling and 'talerschwingen'. The culminating excitement of the afternoon was the drawings for 26 small prizes (reflecting the 26 Swiss cantons) and the grand prize of Swissair tickets for two persons from Toronto to Zurich, ViaRail tickets for two from Vancouver to Toronto and two Swiss railway passes !

Tremendous accolades were due to the Museum and Planetarium staff who, within one hour, transformed the chaos of the afternoon into the carefully defined and necessary arrangements for the reception by the Consul General of Switzerland, Mr. Max and Mrs. Inhelder, with accredited diplomatic corps representation. At precisely 5:30 p.m., six Swiss guards in full costume, with Swiss alphorns, heralded the opening of the receiving line.

As one of the pioneer Swiss couples of the Swiss community, Mr. & Mrs. Lüönd (he in a wheelchair) were honoured guests and were escorted by Maria Logan, Senior Citizen Coordinator of the Swiss Society, through the line, into the Museum foyer, through the "Face-to-Face" exhibition, past the youth orchestra and outside to the colourfully tented area beside the Museum. The park-like setting overlooking the inlet, with its panoramic view of the Vancouver downtown skyline and magnificent mountains in the background made this late afternoon in August most memorable ! A playful breeze lifted not only the souls of the attendees but also the 26 cantonal emblems and the huge Swiss flag in a gentle salute.

It should be noted that these emblems, plus the beautiful cantonal costumes of the Vancouver Swiss Choir, directly influenced the overall design for the 700 years celebration themese which were voluntarily created and implemented by artist/designer Peter Bach.

More than 1400 invited guests, the majority of whom were Swiss compatriots from the greater Vancouver area, were served special '700 year' Swiss wine especially imported by the Swiss Consul General, then moved on to partake of the gastronomic adventures, at the beautifully decorated and professional mounted stations. Coordinated by Erwin Doeblei of the William Tell Restaurant, prominent Swiss restaurateurs offered a wondrous variety of foods and delectable desserts. The George Robert all-star quartet, featuring world renowned jazz musician Clark Terry, alternated with the Frenesi Youth Orchestra and the Swiss Dorfmusik to provide a blend of Swiss cultural diversity through music.

In his short formal address, Mr. Inhelder acknowledged the support of many community organizations and of the provincial government, in particular the Hon. Russell Fraser, Attorney General of the province of

B.C., Mr. Michael Campbell, president of the Board of Trustees of the Vancouver Museum, and Rolf Brülhart, coordinator of the 700-Year events, as well as the generous sponsors of the events. Special thanks were extended to the virtually hundreds of volunteers of the four Swiss organizations, the staffs of the Museum and Planetarium and the Consultate General of Switzerland in Vancouver, who provided countless hours of service in organizing this very special celebration.

An additional event of this special day was the Vancouver Board of Trade Swiss National Day Luncheon, at the CentreBoard Club. Coordinated by Mrs. Alicia Manering, an exceptional buffet was prepared by the Swiss chef of the Pan Pacific Hotel, the decor was outstanding, and a sextet of the Frenesi Youth Orchestra played folk music selections for the enjoyment of the attendees.

Rolf Brülhart, President
Swiss Society of Vancouver

National Day Family Celebrations

— At the Mountain Range Chalet
(July 27, 28, 1991)

As part of the year-long 700 years of Switzerland celebrations, the four Vancouver Swiss organizations (the Swiss Canadian Chamber of Commerce, the Swiss Canadian Mountain Range Association, the Swiss Society of Vancouver, the Swiss Dorfmusik) and the Consulate General of Switzerland in Vancouver planned special and elaborate programs for the National Day Family Celebrations.

Early Saturday afternoon, July 27th, families with young children began to gather to assist with the decorating and the preparations in the beautiful pastoral surroundings below the Swiss Chalet on the property of the Swiss Canadian Mountain Range Association in Coquitlam, B.C. Organized games occupied the children and considerable excitement was generated when TV crews invited participation in their filming and in interviews. 1st of August National Day Insignia, commemorative "T" shirts and special 700-anniversary Swiss Army knives were offered for sale and food booths enjoyed heavy attendance.

Victoria Swiss Club

The Swiss Community in Victoria represented by approximately 20 families and their children celebrated the 700th Anniversary of Switzerland's Confederation on Saturday, July 27th in the beautiful surroundings at Mount Douglas Park, overlooking the spectacular Haro Strait. The sky was clear and the day was warm, indeed a perfect day for barbecuing, eating outdoors, socializing and playing with the children. The Swiss flag, the Canadian flag and the flags of the Cantons, as well as lampions were hanging along the perimeter of the picnic area, with Swiss music playing in the background, there was a definite sense of patriotism in the atmosphere!

After the official greeting to members by the President, an address composed by one of our absent members was read, by Susanne Nussbaumer, our Treasurer. It told of a few of our earlier Swiss compatriots who came to Canada in the pioneering days and development stage of Canada, often in the face of hardships. Although just a few examples were cited, we know that many more Swiss have had a great influence in Canadian history.

Following the supper hour, we indulged ourselves at the Dessert Table, featuring a specialty from each household. As usual, the treats were just too tempting to stop at one or two samples! No wonder Swiss chefs are world renowned, we have a lot to boast about.

The evening drew to a conclusion with a close circle of those present singing the familiar and well loved songs of our homeland; listening to live accordion music, thanks to our own Sam Iseli, and sharing a very special day with our friends and fellow countrymen.

National Day . . .

At the official opening ceremonies, Mayor Sekura of Coquitlam offered a welcoming address, as did the Consul General of Switzerland Vancouver, Mr. Max Inhelder. A varied program of anthem singing, yodeling and alphorn music, a Dorfmusik presentation and a Swiss Choir performance was very much enjoyed and the colourfully costumed Scesaplana Band from Switzerland provided dance music, enjoyed as much by the onlookers as by the dancers.

Thanks to Maria Logan of the Swiss Society, who brought large number of lampions back from Switzerland, the largest children's lampion procession ever was held, led by Nick Schwabe in full Swiss guard regalia.

The 34 young musicians of the Swiss Frenesi Youth Orchestra arrived at Vancouver airport from San Francisco and were transported out to the chalet at 1:00 a.m. It was 3:00 or 4:00 a.m. before they settled down in the Swiss army-like quarters. The next day, all were billeted in private homes with individual families, where they were hosted for the entire 10 days of their Vancouver stay. Coordinated by an organizing committee, the accommodations provided by the families was most gratefully appreciated.

The Sunday cross-cultural children's day program was jointly sponsored by the Mayor and Coquitlam Centennial Committee and the Swiss Society of Vancouver. Children of Coquitlam were invited to join the Swiss families and children, as were 26 different ethnic families. All the children who were signed in received little gifts and specially designed certificates, commemorating their attendance, and signed by the Consul General of Switzerland in Vancouver and the president of the Swiss Society.

The Frenesi Youth Orchestra and the Scesaplana Band, both of Switzerland, provided music, and races and games for children in all age groups were organized, and for the parents as well. The older children (up to 12 years) enthusiastically joined in a giant treasure hunt, and the younger ones participated in many games prepared by the coordinators, Maya Joehl and Linda Steir.

The day's activities concluded with a hamburger and hot dog barbecue and the serving of a huge 700-year anniversary cake.

The outstanding success of these two family days must be accredited to the generosity of the Swiss Canadian Mountain Range Association and their president, Marcus Spycher, for providing the beautiful venue.

Jos Rehli, 2nd Vice-President,
Swiss Society of Vancouver

Town of Stettler

Office of the Mayor

June 19, 1991

Mr. Max Inhelder, Consul General
Consulate General of Switzerland
790 - 99 Canada Place
Vancouver, BC V6C 3E1

Dear Sir:

It is my pleasure on behalf of Council and the citizens of Stettler to congratulate the Country of Switzerland on your 700th birth this year.

The Town of Stettler was named after Carl Stettler, a native of Eggwil, Switzerland who came to Alberta in 1903 and filed on a homestead two miles east of the present town site. He became the postmaster of Stettler in the fall of 1905 and soon became known to everyone and respected by all.

When the matter of a name had to be decided there was little hesitation and in the spring of 1906 Stettler was gazetted a village in the new Province of Alberta.

By November of 1906, just under a year since the first shack was built, Stettler had a population of 700 with nearly 70 businesses. In November of 1906, the Village of Stettler became a town, and the first Mayor was N.B. McGillivray.

Stettler and area is known as the "Heart of Alberta" and its central position allows it to service the major market areas of East Central Alberta. The Town of Stettler's current population is 5,147 and the County population is 5,179.

As the Country of Switzerland celebrates its 700th birthday our best wishes go out to all your citizens realizing that our heritage is close to the Swiss.

May all your celebrations throughout this year be successful and our thoughts are with you. Best Wishes!

Yours truly,
Bob Stewart, Mayor

Lisa Kohler, CTC
Manager

Edmonton

Edmonton Swiss Men's Choir

Direction: Elisabeth Anderson

The presentations of the guest choir do not let themselves measure in any respect with our scales. To put it right away up front: An astonishing and extraordinary accomplishment.

The choir chose "Gruss an die Heimat", a text by Walter Baumann, to present musical expression to the 700 Year Celebration and its related journey to the country of origin. No lesser person has been commissionned for the composition than the Valaisian composer Jean Daetwyler. He created an impressive, but fairly difficult choral movement with many unusual sound sequences, harmonies difficult to sing in the intonation and frequent changes in timing. The setting of the upper voice for solo soprano is reminiscent of the alphorn. It was astounding how the choir was able to shape such a production with Elisabeth Anderson who performed as a prominent singer in this work. The choir offered an impressive first performance of this demanding work with an unprecedented tonal presence, excellent sounding voices and powerful tenors.

"This Land" from the "Canadian Suite" by a Canadian composer, sang in english, provided the opportunity to hear an example of North-american song work. The choir astonished with its vocal capabilities also therein. The director guided her singers with charme and great musicality as they followed her intentions spontaneously, willingly and competently and she was supported musically and assertively by a excellently accompanying pianist. Thus a choral work sounding full of grasping impressions. Everything was present: Dynamic multitude, the work was presented with devotion and assertive musicality, someties in bright laxation, sometimes played in well guided lines, and so without difficulties changing from 2/2 to 4/4 or even to 5/4 rythm. This work was also an example of the high level of the guest choir with competences and possibilities that we in our lands do not dare to dream of: Highlight and apex of all presentations.

Fredy Messmer

CH-91 Tour Closing Report

(PART I)

Preliminary planning to participate in the 700-year jubilee celebration began early 1988. First contacts with potential guest choirs were established through correspondence with the "SCHWEIZERISCHE CHOR-VEREINIGUNG" (Swiss Choir Union) and with some choirs acquainted to our members, i.e. Diepoldsau, Scuol, Biel, Zweisimmen and Corminboeuf. Through advertising by the Swiss Choir Union further contacts were established with the Maennerechor Engelburg who organized their traditional "FUERTENLAENDISCHE SAENGERTAG" (a choir festival with competition and expert jury assessment) to accommodate the visit of the Edmonton Swiss Men's Choir.

Contacts were solidified during 1989. A general tour plan and tour dates were pre-arranged. It is noteworthy that the SWISS BANK CORPORATION (Canada) and GERBER CHEESE Co. Ltd. supported the planned event either with monetary contributions or marketable products. Their support is gratefully acknowledged. A preliminary budget established the contribution by each choir member to enable everybody to participate without personal financial strain. Further substantial fund raising was possible by members donating time to the SWISS ETHNIC MUSIC ASSOCIATION. They organized bingos and a casino under the regulations of the Alberta Gaming Commission. Through the search for sponsorship by the SWISS REINSURANCE the choir was invited to a commissioned performance for their employee association. Contact by Edmonton choir members travelling in Europe provided organizational assistance. The prominent composer Jean Daetwyler was personally approached to commission a special song for our choir to bring the greetings of the ethnic Swiss abroad. The text for "Gruss an die Heimat" was written by the Swiss author Walter Baumann. To bring Canadian music as greetings from Edmonton and the Province of Alberta to the 700 Year Celebrations of Switzerland was an important aspect of the tour. Thanks to the initiative of our director Elisabeth Lesoway Anderson the Canadian composer Zenoby Lawryshyn wrote the "Canadian Suite", a work combining Canadian coral music and interweaving Canadian folkstunes in four movements.

During 1990 the host choirs arranged their program for our choir to be the focal event for their festival performance. Final confirmation towards the end of the year were completed and several potential hosts were late in their application and had to be declined. Administrative preparations by our choir committee approached completion and the budget requirements were finalized. Transportation arrangements within Switzerland by tour bus of ROTH REISEUNTERNEHMUNGEN of Wattwil SG were confirmed.

Early 1991 the tour plan was fixed and the route established. In order to achieve performance excellence the choir practices were substantially intensified. Shortly before departure, on May 10, 1991, the choir performed the full musical program in form of a dress rehearsal in the First Presbyterian Church in Edmonton. The tour began in Engelburg (St. Gallen) participating at the "FUERSTENLAENDISCHE SAENGERTAG" followed by Diepoldsau (St. Gallen), Scuol (Grison) Lumino (Ticino), Biel-Bienne (Berne), Corminboeuf (Fribourg), Sierre (Valais), Zweisimmen (Berne), Zaeziwil (Berne), Zuerich City and Wangen-Dietlikon (Zuerich).

On May 30, 1991 the choir left Edmonton International Airport and arrived early next morning in Zuerich to begin its journey. After a days rest with our hosts in Engelburg the choir presented on Saturday June 1, 1991 the full "Deutsche Messe" by Schubert in the local gothic church. The reaction by the audience was an expression of surprise. The following day 22 choirs, each on its own, performed in the same church to be judged by an expert jury (Our jury report was later sent to Edmonton, its laudation does not require further comment).

The two picnics we had in July — one at the Bühlmann's Farm and the other at the Keller's Farm were an excellent success. I was very pleased with the turn out and equally impressed with the new members who joined us.

The First of August celebration at the Kamer's Farm was fantastic. We had Swiss people from all over Canada helping us to celebrate our National Day. Even visitors from Switzerland came to the Kamer's Farm in Clandeboye. We had approximately 200 people participating in our 700th Birthday. We served grilled Cervelats and Bratwurst on a bun, Nussgipfel — beer, soft drinks and coffee. We also had a target shooting contest that was won by a visitor from Switzerland. At 10:45, after the speech from our Bundespräsident, Mr. Flavio Cotti, we had a beautiful display of a bonfire and fireworks. All in all, the evening was a great success.

August 11 to 17, 1991, the Majestic Alps Pavilion opened its doors for the third year. Since Switzerland celebrated its 700th Birthday, we had requested the Face to Face exhibition from the Swiss Consulate General in Toronto for our display at Folklorama. Mr. Ernst Keller, Consul General, was kind enough to take the Face to Face exhibition down two days earlier than the actual scheduled time at the City Hall in Toronto, just to make sure we would receive it on time for our opening at the Majestic Alps Pavilion in Winnipeg.

The Face to Face was well received by those attending our Pavilion. We decorated the hall with a Swiss flag and posters from all regions of Switzerland. Authentic Swiss folklore music played in the background. Besides the Face to Face exhibition was a cultural display of a Bauernstube (Bavarian style), along with three large cow bells from Switzerland provided by Alex and Margarit Mannhart and our own Alphorn. In the same hall, we had a souvenir stand with bells, spoons and many other articles from Austria, Bavaria and Switzerland, including our famous Lindt chocolates. There was a special corner for Geneva and pamphlets from all parts of Switzerland. Also, a special display from Swissair made the entire exhibition very informative and beautiful. Many thanks go to the Consulate General, National Tourist Office and Swissair in Toronto for helping us to get everything to Winnipeg on time.

Many thanks also go to our Ambassadors Myrna Eng and Fritz Saurer. They did a great job of welcoming our guests from all over the world. The comments we received as our visitors left were excellent. We had people coming back to our Pavilion as many as five or six times during the one week. Also many thanks go to Eve Rotzetter for co-ordinating the volunteers from the Swiss Club and friends. Thanks to Irene Douglas for taking care of the souvenirs. I was very proud to see so many members helping us out at the Pavilion. We wish to extend many thanks to all volunteers for helping to do such a good job. The reports I received from the guests of our Pavilion were very positive. Many said we were the friendliest and most enjoyable Pavilion they visited. That's why we had so many guests returning several times. Thanks to each and everyone of you for helping at the Majestic Alps Pavilion.

Yours truly,

Urs Eng, Assistant Co-ordinator

1. Augustfeier auf dem Mont-Royal

Aus Anlass des 700. Geburtstages der Eidgenossenschaft kam Montreal dieses Jahr in den Genuss einer unvergesslichen 1. Augustfeier, die von langer Hand und mit viel Enthusiasmus vorbereitet wurde und dank der Unterstützung unzähliger Helferinnen und Helfer aus dem schweizerischen Gastgewerbe mit Erfolg durchgeführt werden konnte. Das diesem einmaligen Ereignis entgegengebrachte Interesse war überaus gross, wozu die Medien in wesentlichem Masse beigetragen haben. Mehrere tausend Personen, Schweizer wie Kanadier, gaben sich auf dem Mont-Royal ein Stelldichein, wo die Ländlerkapelle "Scesaplana", das Hans-Ruedi-Kappeler-Quartett, der Duft von Raclettekäse und der von Generalkonsul Hermann Buff gespendete "Jubiläumswein" schon vor dem Festakt für viel Stimmung sorgten. Selbst das mit voller Wucht auf das Festzelt niederprasselnde Gewitter konnte weder der guten Laune schaden, noch die zahlreichen Vertreter des Konsularischen Corps, der OACI und der hiesigen Behörden, unter ihnen Bürgermeisterin May Cutler von Westmount und Stadtrat Nick auf der Maur, von der Teilnahme am offiziellen Empfang abhalten.

Den Festakt eröffnete Dr. Marco Genoni, Präsident des hiesigen Komitees der 700-Jahrfeier, auf dessen Rede die Grussadressen von Michelle Courchesnes, Vize-Ministerin für kulturelle Angelegenheiten der Provinz

Québec, Léa Cousineau, "Présidente du Comité Exécutif de la Ville de Montréal", und die Ansprache von Botschafter Ernst Andres folgten. Letzterer erwies mit seiner Anwesenheit den in der "Belle Province" lebenden Landsleuten eine besondere Ehre, was allseits sehr geschätzt wurde. Die beiden Vertreterinnen der Provinz- und Stadtregierung durften an diesem Abend eine "Swiss Art Swatch"-Armbanduhr entgegennehmen, dies im Sinne einer symbolischen Übergabe der aus Anlass der 350-Jahrfeier Montreals von der Firma Swatch AG gestifteten und für die neue "Place Berri" bestimmten Uhren.

Last but not least verdiensten der Chor "Les Oiseaux Migrateurs" und die "Fanfare Suisse", welche die Bundesfeier mit ihren schönen Darbietungen bereichert, eine spezielle Würdigung, ebenso wie die grosszügigen Sponsoren und die Stadtbehörden, ohne deren Unterstützung und Entgegenkommen der Anlass in dieser einmaligen Form nicht hätte durchgeführt werden können.

Der denkwürdige Tag ging dann unter klarem Himmel mit einer stimmungsvollen Lampionparade, dem traditionellen Freudenfeuer und bei Musik und Tanz bis spät in die Nacht zu Ende. Fazit: eine sehr schöne und gelungene 1. Augustfeier, die allen Anwesenden noch lange in Erinnerung bleiben wird.

v.l.n.r.: Dr. Marco Genoni, Frau Michelle Courchesnes, Frau Léa Cousineau, Botschafter Ernst Andres und Generalkonsul Hermann Buff.

1er août au Mont Sutton

La célébration de la Fête Nationale à Sutton a connu, cette année encore, un grand succès. Selon une pratique qui est en train de devenir une tradition, nos compatriotes ont participé en très grand nombre. Cette année, nous avons eu le plaisir de compter parmi nos visiteurs des Suisses en provenance des États-Unis en particulier des états limitrophes.

En raison du 700ième anniversaire de la Confédération, le programme comportait, en plus des activités habituelles, un certain nombre de nouveautés qui ont eu l'heure de plaisir à tous. La présence de deux orchestres champêtres venus spécialement de Suisse a su recréer l'atmosphère typique des 1er août traditionnels. Fait inusité, les deux orchestres et nos musiciens locaux se sont regroupés pour improviser une performance tout à fait originale. Par ailleurs, un groupe de jeunes filles dévouées a organisé magnifiquement des jeux pour les enfants des différents groupes d'âges : à voir les mines réjouies de tous, cette initiative s'est avérée un succès complet. Un autre groupe s'est donné la tâche de nous remémorer les différentes dates importantes de la fondation de la Confédération, et les jeux scéniques qui illustraient ces différents événements, ont contribué à rafraîchir plus d'un souvenir scolaire.

Suite aux prières et invocations des artisans de cette fête, le soleil était radieux et la température chaude mais agréable a enchanté tout le monde. Un coup de chapeau doit être adressé aux organisateurs et aux bénévoles dont le dévouement et l'efficacité ont été, une fois de plus, remarquable. La Fête de 1991 a clairement mis en évidence le 700ième anniversaire de la Confédération, maintenant nous nous préparons déjà pour le 701ième.

Au plaisir de vous voir à Sutton en 1992.

J.C. Moret
Président de la Fédération des Sociétés Suisses de l'est du Canada inc.

Notre 700ème . . . à Bedford . . . !

Quelle belle et heureuse fête . . . le soleil et un public très nombreux ont répondu au rendez-vous de notre Journée agricole !

Ce 14 juillet . . . ce n'était pas à la Bastille avec nos amis français, . . . mais à Bedford avec la communauté suisse qui commémorait le 700ème anniversaire de la fondation de la Confédération helvétique.

Un immense succès dépassant de loin toutes les prévisions . . .

Aussi, le comité organisateur remercie de tout coeur et patriotiquement toutes les personnes qui ont oeuvré ou participé à notre fête.

Notre monde rural, par sa présence, son engagement et sa fierté, a présenté l'image vivante de ses origines et de son agriculture. Un spectacle haut en couleurs vivement applaudi et salué par plus de 5000 personnes. (4250 entrées payantes ont été enregistrées ce dimanche).

Le comité adresse ses sentiments les plus respectueux à tous les artisans, celles et ceux qui se sont impliqués bénévolement et spontanément pour folkloriser et colorer cette Journée agricole, compte tenu du caractère exceptionnel de cette fête patriotique.

Le comité associe également à ses remerciements tous les commanditaires pour leur générosité et leur précieux appui.

Jean-Paul Cuénoud, président

P.S.: Suite à la magnifique réussite de cet événement, le comité organisateur a décidé d'allouer un montant de 1 000 $ Can. pour l'aménagement de la Place des Suisses de l'Étranger à Brunnen.
