Popular Place of the Swiss Abroad

Well over 50,000 people visited the Place of the Swiss Abroad in Brunnen this summer, according to Peter Hugentobler, who was in charge of the information pavilion until the end of October. A big attraction was the exhibition "Meet the Fifth Switzerland", organised by the Secretariat for the Swiss Abroad. The Swiss Path round the Lake of Uri was another magnet for many visitors.

One of the highlights of this eventful year was the official opening of the Place of the Swiss Abroad on 4 May 1991 in the presence of Federal Councillor

Jean-Pascal Delamuraz and National Council President Ulrich Bremi. At the end of July attention was focused on the domed roof of the Botta tent, a worthy setting for those attending the Congress of the Swiss Abroad and the reception for the seven members of the Federal Council by the Swiss Abroad on August 1, 1991.

It is to be hoped that next year, too, many Swiss from at home at abroad will make their way to Brunnen. They will find that the freshly-planted Place of the Swiss Abroad is the ideal place to meet one another. SM

AJAS

We are receiving an ever greater number of requests from young Swiss of both sexes living abroad about training and the choice of a profession in Switzerland. AJAS can now provide a comprehensive information kit on these subjects in either French or German. This includes about one thousand individual sheets provided by the various vocational training advisory offices, all kept carefully up to date. Each sheet provides information on one profession and contains details on the following subjects:

- Description of the profession
- Requirements
- Conditions
- Training
- Further training
- Related professions

If you would like to receive this information kit on vocational training, please write to: AJAS, Alpenstrasse 26, CH-3000 Berne 16
