No, actually, we are not thinking about the first of August.

We are, in fact, thinking about your future and that of your family – just as we always have, for our Swiss Abroad ...while the 1st of August celebration and fireworks so vividly reflect our vision of brightness and optimism for your future. The capital market is, at present, as dynamic and active as the insurance industry – naturally THE FUND must keep pace. We are, currently, in the process of designing a basket of new services which could be specifically tailored to suit your own individual requirement – whatever your situation in life. Our new
