Exclusive offer for Swiss Review readers

A trip through Swiss history

Just 150 years ago a unique multi-cultural and multi-lingual society developed. Its name was Switzerland. Through the centuries the embryo state had grown one limb after another in the form of new cantons, until in 1848 it gained a central structure with the federal constitution.

In the context of the 150-year jubilee of Switzerland and immediately following the Congress of the Swiss Abroad, we have put together a trip through history especially for Swiss Abroad, which will take participants through the original cantons, over the St. Gotthard pass and into Canton Ticino, Valais, and Vaud.

The trip will be guided and commented upon by a historian speaking several languages. We shall be visiting landscapes, castles, churches, monasteries, ruins, old cities and towns, as well as many other witnesses to a vibrant past.

Our trip will also represent a gourmet excursion through

Swiss history, with new and exciting specialities to taste every day.

On the way back participants will be able to travel to the Jungfrauoch (11,342 feet) on the highest railway in Europe and/or visit the Federal Wrestling and Alpine Games Festival, which dates from the fifteenth century.

We shall be accompanied on all occasions by our historian, we shall travel in a modern bus, and we shall stay in three-star hotels with full board. Those interested may register using the form below, or ask us for a detailed document kit.
