Today, we very strongly say YES to the bilateral treaties between Switzerland and the EU. But our reflection should go beyond: on our continent, the 15 EU Member States ensure peace, security and welfare through the establishment of common rules. Switzerland applies those decisions without participating in their making. This is an unworthy situation which erodes our sovereignty. It is indeed the small and medium EU Member States which have a greater say within the EU than outside of it. Vote on October 24th for candidates clearly in favour of Switzerland's membership in the EU!

1999 National Council Elections

For a secure retirement pension.

Including Swiss Abroad.

When the government announced its intention to restrict the eligibility of Swiss Abroad for the voluntary AHV/IV, the FDP was the only party to protest. For many of our over 500,000 compatriots abroad this insurance option is essential to their provisions for old age and retirement. The FDP is also committed to ensuring that the AHV remains fundable. For this reason we call upon the Federal Council to make a clear statement, once and for all, on its plans for further developing its array of social instruments.

Security through reform.

Swiss Federal Elections 1999:

We want people in our parliament who are fiercely dedicated to the independence and neutrality of our country, and who reject any integration of Switzerland in the EU, the UN and NATO.
