Multilingual and bang up to date

Swiss Radio International's Internet platform has been further extended and now offers sites in Italian, Spanish and Arabic.

ALL AVAILABLE SRI LANGUAGES have now been incorporated in the www.swissinfo.org home page. The continual rise in the number of visitors from all over the world attests to the high demand that this type of the service meets. Every day thousands of surfers log onto the wide range of "swissinfo" services.

The German-language site has been expanded with the addition of popular SF DRS programme "10 vor 10". "Meteo" provides a weather forecast and a comprehensive winter sports bulletin, including information on piste conditions and operating lifts in Swiss winter sports resorts.

The search machine "swissinfo" is proving highly popular: if you have missed a broadcast or need to do research on Switzerland for a school project or business purposes, you can search the "swissinfo" multimedia archive for key words. In addition, the database link with addresses of Swiss Internet sites is growing by the day and already boasts more than 6000 entries.

Popular free e-mail service

The free "swissinfo" e-mail service is a major success, with several thousand subscribers already registered. Just enter <http://freemail.swissinfo.org> and get your address now!

To keep up with the latest news, why not subscribe to our Newsletter under «E-Mail Services»? Any other questions? Mail us at marketing@swissinfo.org or call us on: +41 31 350 92 22.
