79th Congress of the Swiss Abroad: The UN from the inside

More Swiss than you might think actually work for the UN or come into daily contact with this international organisation. What are their experiences of the organisation? Where do they see the strengths and weaknesses, opportunities and risks of the UN and its special organisations? How do they rate Switzerland's role and contribution to the global community?

In Spring 2002 the people and cantons will be asked to vote on Switzerland's membership of the UN. This year's Congress of the Swiss Abroad, to be held in Davos from 17 to 19 August, will contribute to the UN debate by bringing together personalities with inside knowledge of the UN.

The 2001 Congress of the Swiss Abroad aims to document the contribution made by Switzerland and Swiss personalities to UN activities, provide an opportunity to meet UN insiders, and raise the Swiss public's awareness of the role of the Fifth Switzerland in terms of foreign relations.

Experts on peace security, development aid and humanitarian relief, exponents of cultural work, and leaders of the business community will be reporting on their experiences. Federal Councillor Joseph Deiss will be taking part as a representative of the national government. Exposés, workshops and debates are on the agenda, as well as an official reception by the host canton and an excursion into the beautiful Grisons countryside.

Please send me documentation on the 79th Congress of the Swiss Abroad!
