Die Schweiz entsendet wieder einen Botschafter nach Harare

Die Vorsteherin des EDA hat beschlossen, die Direktion der Botschaft in Harare, wie vor dem Jahr 2001, einem Botschafter anzuvertrauen. Deshalb hat der Bundesrat beschlossen, Marcel STUTZ, bis vor kurzem Minister und erster Mitarbeiter des Missionschefs in Madrid, zum ausserordentlichen und bevollmächtigten Botschafter der Schweiz in den Republiken Zimbabwe, Angola, Malawi und Sambia, mit Sitz in Harare, zu ernennen. Botschafter Stutz hat sein Amt am 5. Januar 2005 angetreten.

Marcel Stutz wurde 1954 in Uzwil/SG geboren und ist heimatberechtigt in Wängi/TG und Degersheim/SG. Er besitzt ein "Master of Arts" der Universität Reading (GB). 1982 trat er in den Dienst des Eidgenössischen Departements für auswärtige Angelegenheiten und wurde als Stagiaire in Bern und Tunis eingesetzt. An die Zentrale zurückgekehrt, wurde er 1984 als diplomatischer Mitarbeiter dem Europaratsdienst bei der Politischen Abteilung I zugeteilt. 1985 wurde er als dritter Botschaftssekretär der ständigen Vertretung der Schweiz beim

Europarat temporär nach Strassburg versetzt und 1986 in der gleichen Eigenschaft nach Lagos, wo er später zum zweiten Botschaftssekretär ernannt wurde. 1989 erfolgte seine Versetzung als erster Botschaftssekretär zu unserer Vertretung in Berlin/DDR, ab 1991 als Konsul in der Aussenstelle Berlin und 1992 nach Jakarta, wo er 1994 zum Botschaftsrat ernannt wurde. Zurück in Bern im Jahr 1995, wurde er diplomatischer Sektionschef bei der Politischen Abteilung II, ab 1998 mit dem Ministertitel. Seit 2001 war er Minister und erster Mitarbeiter des Missionschefs in Madrid.

Swiss Business Council opens its door

The Swiss Business Council of South Africa (SBC), representing the interest and investments of the existing Swiss business community in South Africa, would like to broaden its membership base from currently 48 member companies. This membership drive forms part of a campaign to gear up the Swiss business community to the challenges and opportunities of the World Cup 2010 in SA, and it is an expression of the SBC's philosophy and ongoing efforts to improve the association's value proposition.

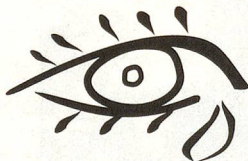

The Swiss Business Council (SBC) was formally constituted in March 1996 to create a forum for Swiss business executives to meet and represent their common interests, similarly to the previous, now disbanded Swiss Committee of the South African Foundation. During the nine years of its existence, the SBC has clearly succeeded to provide an access for Swiss and South African politicians and officials to the Swiss business community. Obviously, this has led to numerous occasions for discussions between politicians and members of the SBC.

The SBC is welcoming new member companies big or small from any business sector, provided they are either Swiss-owned or Swiss-managed or have business links with Switzerland. If you would like to find out more about the SBC or you consider it an interesting concept for your company to participate in, please contact Dr. Juerg A. Schalch, Vice-President in charge of 'Secretariat and Communications' (Office Tel 011 884 84 61; Email: juerg.a.schalch@bari-int.com).

Swiss Society Helvetia, Johannesburg

Very little has been heard about the Swiss Club Johannesburg during the last few months. With the forthcoming AGM on 8.4.2005 the future of the "new" Club will be decided since the select committee will present its findings and proposals for final approval. The majority of the Club grounds were sold during 2004. The final transfer should come through around June/July 2005, as well as the funds from the sale which are to be used to rejuvenate the Club. Unfortunately, and this was to be expected, the activities at the Club have been winding down, mainly due to uncertainty by members and non-members alike as to where the Swiss Club is going.

The committee hopes that the new plans for the Swiss Club will once more stimulate the interest of the Swiss community and that they will find the time to inquire as to what the Club will have to offer after building operations have been finalized. The committee will make sure that the least downtime is achieved during building activities since we are sorely in need of all the support at the Club. Should anyone be interested in finding out more about the Swiss Club please approach the Swiss Club secretariat (mornings only Tue/Fri) Tel 011 805 3039 or Email swissclubjhb@whoswho.co.za.

Swiss Society Alpina, Pretoria

The AGM, which took place on 18 February, was well attended by 24 members. The new committee was elected as follows: President: Sonja Bosch; Vice-President: Joachim Müller; Treasurer: Alexandra de Klerk; Secretary: Margrit Müller; Additional members: Hans-Georg Bosch, Biffy van Rooyen, Antonie de Klerk; Auditors: Isabel Ringel, Werner Berger.

The annual membership fee is: R70 for single members and R100 for families. We request members to settle their membership fees as soon as possible either by sending a cheque or paying at the next event. A direct transfer may be made to: ABSA Bank Wierdapark, Swiss Society Alpina Pretoria, Account Nr. 10-30-9972, Branch Code 632005.

The Swiss Society Alpina, Pretoria, like all Swiss clubs and associations in South Africa, had the opportunity of nominating ASR representatives and voting for the nominated candidates. We wish to thank Gabor von Moricz, who agreed to be nominated by our Club.

Editor's Message

Dear Swiss Review readers,

I would like to introduce myself as the new editor of the Swiss Review regional news in Southern Africa. I am looking forward to taking over this task from my predecessor, Mr. Paul Schamberger. At this occasion, I would like to thank Mr. Schamberger for his excellent work and his great support.

The regional news supplement of the Swiss Review is the information platform for the Swiss community in the region. Therefore, I would like to encourage all Swiss-related organisations in Southern Africa to make this supplement an interesting and relevant source of information by sending in contributions, articles and photos before the deadlines indicated:

3/2005: Friday, 20 May

4/2005: no supplement

5/2005: Friday, 9 September

6/2005: no supplement

I thank all our advertisers without whose support the Southern African regional pages would not be possible. I hope your support will continue in the future. Many thanks, too, to the Swiss Clubs for their co-operation and contributions, and to Lorraine McEnery for the layout.

You will find my contact details under the Impressum. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any queries.

Doris Leitner

Valentine's Day in East London

Thank you to everyone who attended our Valentine's day on 13 February 2005. It was a wonderful event, on a warm summer day and in a relaxed atmosphere, hosted by Max & Janette Rohr in Port Alfred.
