Portrait. Ron Maitland - No Mountain Too High

Ron Maitland, husband of the late Ella Maitland-Bosshard, grew up in Western Australia. As a young man, he served with the AIF in North Africa (Tobruk) during World War II. Captured by the Germans in 1942, he was eventually imprisoned-after many hardships-in an Italian POW camp near Udine, in Northern Italy. When Ron escaped from that camp, he and his comrades fled across the Alps towards Switzerland where, high in the mountains, they could not believe their good fortune. They stumbled across Swiss guards who let them enter Switzerland! At a holding camp in Wald, in the Zürcher Oberland, Ron got to know Switzerland. He appreciated the care and hospitality he received. There, he met his wife, Ella. They married in Wald in 1944, however Ron's permit to remain in Switzerland ran out at that point and he was obliged to return to Australia, this time via Marseilles. Ella joined him in Western Australia the following year, where they had a daughter, Yvonne. Yvonne eventually moved to New South Wales, and in 1979 Ron and Ella moved to Bowral, NSW, to be near her.

After Ella suffered a stroke, Ron used the lonely hours that followed to reflect on his life, which he began to write about. The result is No Mountain Too High and is co-authored by Christine Makella. It reveals a courageous and resilient life's journey, during which fortune favours the bold, and at unexpected moments. Enquiries about the book can be made to Yvonne Springett on (02) 4862 3322 or via email to springet@hinet.net.au.

Gruezi mitenand!

A group of car enthusiasts took pleasure in an interesting drive through the Adelaide Hills to the banks of the River Murray. Some questions along the drive towards Mannum were tricky while others were very easy - young and old enjoyed themselves and compared results during lunch at the Pretoria Hotel. Thank you Warren (organiser), we all had a fantastic time.

The Easter walk at Mount Crawford Forest was enjoyed by many. Some brought their bikes along and explored the great trail along the creek and over the hills. The 'Eiertuetsch' was good fun, some members are very artistic and it almost hurts to crack the beautifully decorated Easter eggs.

Gruezi, bonjour, buongiorno, g'day to all Swiss in South East Queensland

I trust that by now everybody is back in the swing of 2007. Our club started the year with our traditional "Gemuetliche Abe" in the clubhouse in Newstead. This was as usual a true Queensland-style event, very relaxed and everybody brought along a nice platter to share. By the time you read this column, the Swiss Society of Queensland would have also had the first combined Picnic with the Swiss Care Society and I would think that this is only the first one in a series of joint activities.

Upcoming Events

15/4: Bushwalk
22/4: Jass Championship
5-7/5: Camping Weekend
19/5: Raclette
20/5: Bushwalk
27/5: Buderim Lunch (SCCS & SSQ)
7/6: Cinema Night at the Clubhouse
17/6: Bushwalk
30/6: Fondue

We also play Jass every 2nd Thursday and Tennis every Wednesday - please go to www.swiss.org.au for more details. You will also find more info about our bushwalks or any other ad-hoc activities.

As usual, we invite anybody with a Swiss connection to come along to any of the events. There is always a real mix of nice people you can meet and mingle with. Don't forget that Raclette and Fondue Nights are always a big hit, so book early to avoid disappointment!
