Official Communication. Schengen/Dublin

Informative note on the implementation of Schengen/Dublin

The association agreements of Switzerland to Schengen-Dublin concluded with the European Union entered into force on 1 March 2008.

The philosophy behind Schengen is the abolition of systematic border controls among the participating states. Thus road traffic is no longer delayed; road, rail and air passengers no longer have their identity checked by border guards when crossing borders (however, security controls by carriers are still permissible). One common visa for one common area!

As the 26th Schengen Member State, Switzerland applies since 12 December 2008, the Schengen regulations concerning the issuance of visas. The visa will be valid for entering the territory of all Schengen member states. This will also apply to Schengen visas issued by other Schengen States which will permit entry to Switzerland. Being an active member of Schengen, Switzerland will benefit strongly from the important Schengen Security Information System (SSIS). This system will be - among other things - an important working instrument for Swiss authorities in fighting organized crime. Furthermore, being an active Schengen Member, Switzerland becomes at the same time part of the Schengen/Dublin Association Agreements. This Association Agreements enable Switzerland to fully participate in European efforts to increase co-operation in security and asylum question.

For information concerning changes of procedures and methods of issuance of visas, we recommend that you consult the Federal Office for Migration (FOM) website: <http://www.bfm.admin.ch> or the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney.

Editorial. Swiss Review Budget Cuts Confirmed

It is now official: A press announcement was issued on December 16 by ASO that the budget for the Swiss Review will be reduced from CHF1.8M to CHF1.3M in 2009; not the Christmas present we hoped for really.

In the press release, the Swiss Review was described as the "Schweizer Sackmesser" of the Expats living far abroad, providing a newspaper, political information media, and a forum for Embassies, Consulates and Clubs, all at once; not too bad at a cost of only CHF 1.25 per printed issue!

The 27% reduction in the budget now means that there will only be 4 issues annually (for 2009, they will be February, April, August and October); all of them will have the 4-page Regional News, so at least for us here Down Under, it will be business as usual, at least for now...

Upcoming ASO Elections for Term 2009-2013

Back in November last year, a letter was sent out by Peter Meury, CSA Representative, to Swiss Clubs and Groups providing informing on the upcoming CSA election process for the next term. There are still some vacancies!

An ever growing Swiss population in Australia means that we can now fill 4 permanent seats within the CSA. Currently, we have 3 seats filled; Peter Meury from Sydney and Walter Purtschert from Melbourne both indicated that they would prefer to step down and let somebody else have a go, while I would be quite happy to continue for another term, given I get re-elected, of course. It is no secret that we aim for 1 representative in each of the major cities like Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth, or possibly also Adelaide.

As a CSA Representative, your role is, simply speaking, to "represent the interests of Swiss living in Australia within the Swiss parliament". Practically, this means that it is beneficial if you can attend the yearly "Auslandschweizerkongress" in August in Switzerland. The CSA Meeting is usually held 1 day before the congress start and it is there where we can have a say and bring forward our requests to the Swiss Parliament.

Throughout the year in Australia, your role is to listen to the needs of Swiss living here, give help and support in ASO matters like AHV cases, and provide information on what the ASO has on offer in general (like schools, programs, etc). Besides this, the most important skill required is that you are well connected within the Swiss community; for example you might serve (or have served) in a committee in your group/club, or simply have good connections to many Swiss living here. Please check the ASO website for more details on the requirements / election process.

So if you feel like this profile fits you, why not give it a go and send-in your CV to Peter Meury, PO Box 278, Budgewoi NSW 2262, or email petermeury@bigpond.com, or contact any of us by phone (list of CSA Representatives is on the left). We would like to wrap-up the election process by the end of February so we can put forward our candidates shortly after that to Bern.

I hope you all had a good start for 2009 and if there is anything you wish to contribute to these pages, just give me a ring.

Words From The Consul General.

Dear Compatriots, Heads of Swiss companies and organisations,

On behalf of the team of the Swiss Consulate General, I wish you and your families a festive season and a positive New Year, good health and plenty of success.

As the world becomes more and more a global village, the recent severe economic and financial turbulences crossed borders with an unprecedented speed and a quick solution/end to this is unfortunately not in sight. Despite these unpleasant facts, the Consulate General once more can look back to a very eventful year with many successful events - just to mention a few:

Project ToptoTop from Sabine & Dario Schwörer (7 summits non-stop round the world by human power and nature's force). With their fine sailing boat "Pachamama", Sabine & Dario Schwörer participate in the classic Sydney to Hobart Yacht Race on Dec 26. This 628 nautical mile course is often described as one of the most challenging ocean race in the world.

Project "Solartaxi" from Louis Palmer - some of you certainly came across Louis during his long stay here in Australia.

Project A1 GP - Swiss Team in Sydney, last February, they landed the prestigious second place.

Our famous Compatriot and Olympic gold medal winner, Edith Hunkeler, visited Down Under in January - February 2008 and took part in various wheel chair races and even won the race in Sydney.

Project Nicolas & Stephan Perren: father and son circled the world in a small single engine airplane with the aim to stimulate awareness and support for research of osteoporosis. Presentations have been organised in Sydney, Brisbane and Melbourne.

These were just a few events where this Consulate played a major role in the organisation. Another very successful event was, of course, the Swiss participation at the famous Audi German Film Festival where Switzerland was represented through the wonderful Swiss movie "The Late Bloomers".

Last but not least, I would like to encourage you to visit the website of the Consulate General which is meant to be a gateway for anyone who is interested in Switzerland. The information you can find there will be revised as new needs arise. I wish to thank visitors in advance for any suggestions that will help us offer even better services to you. You can always contact us by phone or e-mail. The staff of the Consulate General in Sydney will be happy to be of any assistance to you.

Jürg Casserini, Consul General

Happy New Year dear Readers,

I am writing to you all with great optimism even though for many of us, 2009 will be a difficult one as we come out of the worst financial crisis in the past eighty years. But really, it is not all doom & gloom. Compatriots, we have something unique in the heart of Melbourne - the Swiss Club of Melbourne. It has weathered many storms in the past 100 years and it still stands strong as a meeting place for friends to exchange new ideas in a pleasant environment and with some of the best Swiss food money can buy away from Switzerland. Visitors from overseas and interstate flock to the Swiss Club of Victoria in Melbourne for an unforgettable cultural experience and to mix with the locals.

The Swiss Club of Victoria owns a three story building in the heart of Melbourne offering excellent facilities as a meeting/dining place for both private and corporate functions. Both business people and visitors alike can enjoy traditional Swiss food and hospitality in a unique setting. The club restaurant is open for lunch from Monday to Friday and for dinner from Wednesday to Friday. Roger Moullet, our well known chef and restaurant manager will serve you a treat!

As always the first quarter of the year is packed with exciting events and functions in and around the club. By the time you read these lines Roger Federer may have visited the club with his family in his pursuit to win yet another Australian Open. On 4th March our Annual General Meeting will take place, a type of Landsgemeinde and a must for members. The next Swiss Festival, a celebration of Swiss culture which is presented by all Swiss groups of Victoria, will take place at the Austrian Club, Heidelberg West in Victoria, a northern suburb of Melbourne. The new date is on Sunday 22nd March 2009. Please put this date in your diary now and tell your friends to join us! Last year's event attracted over 1'000 visitors from around Australia and the world (please see ad.)

For those of you who are interested in motor sport, the Australian Grand Prix will be held at Albert Park from 26th to 29th March which is only a short distance away from the club. Who knows, perhaps the BMW Sauber team will pay us a surprise visit. Come to the club for a good laugh, the Melbourne Comedy Festival will use the "Swiss House" as their stage (1-26 April). Buy tickets on the premises and enjoy dinner at the club,

The renovation and future utilisation of the second floor is still the committee's number one topic. We need financial support to turn this potential asset into a commercial success. If you are interested and want to know more about it please get in touch with the committee.

We encourage all members and friends of the club to participate in the active planning of our future club building. You can voice your opinion to the committee verbally or in writing.

The Swiss Club of Victoria looks forward to welcoming you at the club or at one of the many fantastic events.

Please visit our website swiss.org.au/swissclubvic for more information.

Gruezi mitenand!

Best wishes for a successful and happy 2009. I am delighted to announce that we have an extended and rejuvenated committee. Thank you for the outgoing members and a warm welcome to the 'fresh blood'. We are focused on getting young and old Swiss and their friends involved in the activities - so what is stopping you from picking up the phone and joining us?

This year we got involved with Tour Down Under for the first time and had a Swiss Sausage & Crusty Breadroll stall at Willunga Oval. Thank you all for dressing up in red & white to cheer on the Swiss bike riders - the support was fantastic!

Groups and organisations representing all four languages and areas of Switzerland take part in the Swiss Festival, where the Swiss community showcases its unique culture and traditions. Food and drinks are available on the day. Some of the groups and organisations that attend this festival are:

- The Swiss Ambassador to Australia
- Groupe Romand du Victoria
- Pro Ticino
- Swiss Club of Victoria
- Trachtengruppe Schwyzerguess
- Swiss Yodel Choir Matterhorn
- Swiss Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry
- Organisation of the Swiss Abroad (ASO)
- Swiss Academic Network Melbourne

Bring your families and friends and have a good time! There are games for children, numerous stalls and attractions and live performances by various Swiss community groups. Non-Swiss are welcome! Ample parking is available.

Sali mitenand; The Samichlaus event at Perry Lakes, was again a great success. Fifty six children, aged 1 to 14 fronted the Samichlaus. Some of the children even had a "Versli" for the Chlaus. Small or big, they all happily received their little Chlaus Bag and "Grüttibänz". Thank you Playgroup Mums and Dads for organising the event. Thank you Samichlaus for playing the most important part. The smell of "Roscht-Bratwürsch" and Cervelats went far beyond our designated area.

Things are looking up at our Rolling Greens property. Santa has dropped off 16 packs of Smart Pavers. Finally, we can look forward to a paved shelter.

No more blowing off sand from sausages and steaks. Beny Schildknecht, our new Property Manager would like to invite you all to our next Busy Bee. The free DIY lesson on brick paving may come in very handy for your next project at home. Look out for the Busy Bee date. It will be around Easter time.

The Easter Sunday Picnic, organised by our Playgroup, should again be lots of fun for children and adults alike. Bring along your picnic basket. The barbeques will all be red hot, ready for you to throw on your snags, steaks and chops. Don't forget our AGM on 22 March 09. Be part of it. Go to our Webpage and find all the instructions on how to become a member. Have a great 2009.

If you managed to see the fireworks on Sydney harbour then you will have had a great start to the new year!

Swiss cartoonist, Caroline Ruetz was recently in Sydney on her way to an International Conference in New Zealand and took part in an exhibition and panel discussion at Alliance Francaise with cartoonists from France and Israel. It was an opportunity to be exposed to the thought patterns of the cartoonists and their different styles of art and humour.

Members also had the opportunity of listening to Swiss amateur pilots, Stefan and Nicholas Perren discuss their extended trip in a single engine plane, whilst showing an extraordinary collection of slides. Nicholas also had an exhibition on photography taken during the trip which was most inspiring.

Adventuresome Swiss couple Dario and Sabine Schwoerer, together with their two small children, sailed into Sydney harbour on their yacht "Pachamama" and gave an interesting presentation regarding their travels. We wish them well on their journey.

Happy New Year to all!

At the Annual General Meeting held on 10 November 2008 we farewelled Roesli and Housi Kaufmann who are retiring after years of dedication to the group. We wish them well in their official retirement, though look forward to seeing them at future functions playing their alphorns. At the same meeting, former President and Vice President, Martin Scarpino, who is moving with his family to Singapore, was made an Honorary Member in respect of the major contribution he gave the group over many years. We wish Martin and his family well.

The show must go on and the group kept practising on Monday evenings to prepare for the wedding of the year in December between The NSW Swiss Club President, Noemi Guyer and Anthony Bangle, where we rang cow bells and sang.

The Yodler's annual Harbour Cruise will be held on Saturday, 28 February, 2009 and we are fortunate this year to have D'Schwoergelis of Melbourne with their great music and of course, Siggy, joining us on board for a night on our fabulous harbour. Please ring for further information.

Our networkers annual Christmas visits with our septua-plus generians produced a lot of positive and refreshing feedback, opportunities to talk with them in their native dialect and share some of the latest news of events and happenings in our community. We have planned with Mrs. Ida GUGGER the Seniors Luncheon for 2009, viz. the first one on 7th March at The Concordia Club and the second one at The Eiger on 23rd May. As always, if you are aware of someone needing some assistance, please contact Ursula as mentioned above.

Gruezi, bonjour, buongiorno, g'day to all Swiss in South East Queensland.

I am writing this article at the end of 2008 and by the time this Swiss Review will be in your letterboxes we will already be well into 2009. After a well deserved summer break we will again have all sorts of activities at the Club in the New Year. We finished off the year with the Squiz-Night, which was again very well attended. All the participants had lots of fun and the winner received a great 1st prize. In December, Santa Claus found the time again to visited us in the forest at Mt Cootha. Lots of families came along which was great and it's so nice have a whole new generation of little Swissies taking part in the club activities - including Timothy who was only born in September and is our beautiful little baby (I am obviously a very proud mum).
