Farewell: Juerg Caserini, Consul General

Farewell message from the Consul General of Switzerland in Sydney

Dear Compatriots, dear friends

GOOD BYE!

Time has come to say good bye to all of you. After four years, Hilde and I have to leave Sydney and Australia to take up a new posting in Manila, Philippines. It is not easy to leave, we had a good time Down Under and we enjoyed life in Australia. We travelled throughout Australia enjoyed meeting many people and always appreciate the big natural diversity of this beautiful country.

Looking back to the last four years, we never had so many changes at the Consulate General in Sydney. After our arrival at the end of May 2005, Hilde and I had to spend more than half a year in a Hotel-Apartment, as the Residence in Bellevue Hill was undergoing major renovations. The Swiss Government took a profound decision to close down our important Consulate General in Melbourne at the end of September 2006. In 2006, we celebrated the 150th anniversary of our Consular representation in Victoria and in the same year, the Representation was closed down for good. The Melbourne jurisdiction was fully integrated in the Consulate of Sydney. The Consulate General in Sydney became bigger and bigger. At the end of June 2007, the AVH/IV-Antenna integrated at this Consulate General closed the door for good. Work-wise, the staff of the Consulate had to digest a lot and became more and more busy. The Consulate also became much more active in cultural affairs and created a new Cultural/Event Calendar. As the Patron of SACA (Swiss Australia Cultural Association) I was very much involved in promoting Swiss and Australian cultures. The Consulate has achieved very good results in the past years, with exhibitions, concerts, lectures and many other culturally related functions. A list of Swiss Artists in Australia was the latest document published by the Consulate.

A list of books, published about Switzerland and its relationship with Australia was also published, likewise, a list of Swiss Winegrowers in Australia. The Consulate also became more active in building up a closer relationship between the Swiss-Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry (SACCI). Participating in SACCI events also gave me a most welcome opportunity to see how Swiss companies are performing and developing in Australia. I also had the pleasure to visit many of our Swiss companies in Australia.

Following my visits to other states of Australia and PNG I realised how important it is to meet with the Swiss colonies, the regional and local Governments, international organisations, universities, cultural organisations and many more. Switzerland has a very good name in Australia and we have to work hard to maintain this outstanding position. I have appreciated the meetings with many people and citizens of our country which have shown to me how much the Swiss, young and old, keep their personal and cultural links with the country they have left for good.

Dear Swiss Compatriots and dear friends, I wish all of you good health and a lot of success and satisfaction in the years to come. Stay active and please offer my successor, Consul General Markus Meli and his wife, who arriving from Ammann in August 2009, the same friendship that you have offered to Hilde and myself.

To all readers of the Swiss Review, we send our warm regards and best wishes.

Hilde and Jürg Caserini

Official Communication. Swiss Pension Update

Are you receiving a Swiss Pension? An important note from the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney ...

Recently Centrelink has sent out letters to persons receiving a Swiss pension requesting them to sign an authorisation for Centrelink to obtain information from the Swiss Compensation Office in Geneva (= SCO) concerning periods prior to the Social Security Agreement between Switzerland and Australia coming into force on 01.01.2008. The Federal Department of Social Security Insurance in Berne points out that the Social Security Agreement does not oblige Swiss pensioners to give Centrelink such an authorisation, without which Switzerland will not release information.

Life certificates can be certified by the Embassy of Switzerland in Canberra, the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney, any Centrelink office, Notary Public or Justice of Peace. The pensioner must appear in person and show a valid official photo identification. Please ensure that the certifying authority uses their official seal and registration number (if applicable) especially when using a Justice of Peace.

Certifications by doctors, nursing homes and hospitals will only be accepted with a doctors certificate confirming the pensioner's inability to go to one of the aforementioned authorities.

It is not recommended to use the police, council, post offices or lawyers as these authorities can only certify the status of life which might result in enquiries by the SCO regarding the civil status.

Pension payments are calculated by SCO in Swiss Francs and paid in the currency of the country of the chosen payment address. Payment wiring fees to the beneficiary's bank or postal establishment are taken care of by SCO. Neither SCO nor its financial intermediaries deduct any commission, tax or other amounts from the due benefits. The correspondence bank in Australia is ANZ.

OSA Special. CSA Elections 09-13

Noemi Guyer, Marc Godat, Roland Isler and Beat Knoblauch (see profiles below) have been confirmed to be the new Australian Delegates to the Council of the Swiss Abroad (CSA) for the term 2009-2013.

In this special, we are going to introduce each of the CSA Delegates, what their duties and services are to you, and how you can get most of the OSA offerings.

"I like to encourage all readers to get in contact with us. We are here to serve you and encourage you to participate and share with us your issues and what your expectations are from the Swiss government. Only what we know about can be brought up for discussion at the next council meeting"

Noemi Guyer, NSW

I am motivated to nurture my connection to Switzerland after having moved to Australia from "Züri - Oberland" in 1984. My father was involved with the Swiss Society and with the Swiss Chamber of Industry of commerce, which lead me to be interested in connecting with my Swiss roots, and hence I joined the Swiss Club of NSW.

Through the club membership, I became the Vice president and later the president. As the president I continued the work of the club, published articles in the "Swiss Community News" and nurtured the relationships between the numerous Swiss clubs and societies (and the Consulate) in Sydney. I feel privileged to have been nominated and accepted to represent our community.

About The CSA/Achievements

The CSA represents the interests of Swiss expatriates (namely you living downunder) before the authorities and public opinion in Switzerland. It is often referred to as the "Parliament of the 5th Switzerland" and has many achievements to showcase, like:

- incl. of Swiss living abroad in the Federal Constitution
- optional old-age and disablement insurance (AHV/AI)
- livelihood protection through solidarity fund (Soliswiss)

The CSA gathers in Switzerland twice a year for a day-long meeting to discuss important matters concerning the Swiss abroad and to voice an opinion on current affairs on behalf of the Fifth Switzerland.

Marc Godat, QLD

Arriving in Australia in 1999 from Solothurn, I have joined the Swiss Society of QLD in 2000 and was representing our community as President from 2004 to 2008.

In 2002, I setup www.swiss.org.au, our portal for Swiss clubs and organisations living here downunder. In 2005, I have been appointed as CSA Delegate for Australia and have since visited the CSA meeting and OSA congress twice, in 2006 and 2008. In 2006 I have been appointed as local editor of the Swiss Review.

Attending several meetings and the congress (and my passion for mushroom gathering in the autumn forests) is part of my bi-annual visits to Switzerland and I feel very privileged to be able to represent our community.

Over Easter, the group travelled to Brisbane to participate at the National Brucke Dancefest. Under the motto "Auf geht's", Austrian, German and Swiss groups took to the stage to celebrate their diverse but common cultures. The Dancefest was another very successful weekend and everyone enjoyed the experience.

Our Unterhaltungsabend on May 9 was a special occasion. We celebrated the 60th Birthday of the dance group. To Roger and his team, thank you for the most delicious meal and service and to everyone for making the night a big success. Practice is every Tuesday night at the Swiss Club. Come and join us!

This year is marking a "change of the guards". May I first acknowledge the contributions made over the years from our outgoing delegates Peter Meury and Walter Purtschert who have done an outstanding job.

Sali mitenand; We had a great time at the Metzgeta. The Rhine Donau Club was choc-a-block. Our Ambassador, Dr Daniel Woker and his wife Myriam fully joined in. The Ambassador, was even leading us in singing "Lugit vo Baerga und Tal". Take Three, one of Perth's best Dancing Band had young and old on the dance floor. Kurt Kappeler, for the occasion, had opened up the huge Miniature Railway. SBB Trains and Buses were all running, what a sight. Adults and children alike, all went home very happy. The Raclette Night was a fully booked event. Twelve wheels of Raclette Cheese had been sitting in our supplier's cool room for some time. Maja and Keith, again, stood like solid oaks beside their Raclette machine. They were serving up portion after portion to the eager hungry mob, whilst chatting to everyone, smiling till the bitter end.

The Swiss Historical Society is an incorporated association whose principal aim is to publish and promote a book about the history of the Swiss communities in New South Wales. Its members are actively involved in researching and compiling information about the various Swiss community groups in New South Wales from the late 19th century to the present day.

If you would like to participate in this project, or if you have information, photos or other mementos to contribute to the book, we would like to hear from you.

The location for our April bushwalk in the Lake McDonald area was a great success, many couples and families walked despite some rain, and stayed for a picnic lunch, a drink and lots of laughter after the exercise.

Join us and enjoy the company of your fellow Sunshine Coast Swiss families for our upcoming events: a traditional 1st August celebration in the country, with a bonfire, music and plenty of good food, then a bowling evening in October and of course, our festive Christmas celebration in December!

We now have our own website under www.swiss.org.au/scsc with contact details, reports of our past functions and an online joining form. Please ring our club president to discuss any questions you may have or contact us via email, we look forward to hearing from many more.
