Report on the meeting of the Council Of The Swiss Abroad
in Berne, 27 March 2010

New legislation for the Swiss

Abroad: The Swiss Secretariat is heavily involved in discussing and preparing legislation concerning the Swiss Abroad. It is very comprehensive and is currently under review and preparation by various working groups. The items which gave most rise to discussions was the way the new legislation provides that future delegates of the Swiss Abroad to the Swiss Council are elected. The working group suggestion is that, only those Swiss Abroad who are registered to vote in Switzerland can elect delegates, not any more the registered Swiss Clubs. I was one of only a few to object to that method because it eliminates the influence and the hard work the Swiss Clubs have done in the past. I think it would be a different matter if the delegates from abroad are elected to the Swiss Parliament, but it is another thing if the delegates are only members of the current Council. No doubt this will continue to be debated. This method of selecting and electing delegates to the Council needs to be further discussed and thought through.

Subsidy for www.swissinfo.ch

The Swiss Federal Council has indicated its intention to cut totally the subsidy for the website www.swissinfo.ch by 2012. Strong debate, everyone urged the Council to make strong representation in order to keep the subsidy, also a resolution was passed. The representative of the Federal Government did say that he didn't think that a final decision in this regard had been made and therefore the matter is still pending and under consideration.

Please say no to budget cuts and participate in the online-petition:

www.rettet-swissinfo.ch

Electronic voting: e-voting for the Swiss Abroad is getting closer, at least in some cantons. After Neuenburg, Geneva should get its act together for 2011 and for Zurich the Swiss from Abroad should be able to vote still this year electronically.

Peak Organisations: I also took part in a specially arranged meeting the day before the official meeting, which was convened especially by our friends from Germany and France to discuss the advantages of having peak organisations of all Swiss Clubs in their country [which we did not think useful here in Australia]. Nevertheless, the discussion and experience was quite interesting. The main advantages seem to be: receipt of official information from Swiss authorities and dissemination to all clubs in all regions which seems to be working well. They stress also that the flow of information is better guaranteed and quite easy. They also claim that if a Swiss from anywhere wants to have some contacts anywhere in Germany they can help more easily. A peak organisation also takes on some representative functions.

Congress of the Swiss Abroad:

It will be held from 20th to 22nd August, 2010 in St. Gallen. Marc Godat will keep you up to date in the next issue.

Please also note, in order to have a say on all matters Swiss, do register to vote in Switzerland and contact your nearest Swiss Consulate. Swiss Abroad should be heard and they can make a difference.

CSA. No to the Dismantling of Information Services

After the Swiss Review was reduced from 6 to 4 editions in 2009, the federal government announced on 25 February 2010 that it intends to discontinue its financial contribution to swissinfo as part of its budget program for 2011-2013. This would almost certainly mean that without the government subsidy, the Swiss Broadcasting Cooperation would also withdraw its financial support immediately, which would spell the certain end of the multimedia news and information platform swissinfo. Jacques-Simon Eggly posed the question which communication strategy Switzerland is pursuing with regards to openness to the world and its connection to Swiss citizens world-wide: "It cannot be that our country is withdrawing from the rest of the world" he said, and adding: "The axing of swissinfo must be averted. It is in the hands of the parliament to prevent this from happening. The proposed budget program cannot be adopted if the members of the federal councils refuse to change the Radio and Telecommunication law." He appealed to the councillors to say 'no' to these budget cuts and reminded them of the government's obligation to serve as an information service provider to the Swiss Abroad. After the closure of Swiss Radio International, swissinfo remains the only world-wide media showcasing Switzerland in all national languages as well as the major world languages. swissinfo is Switzerland's virtual window to the world and provides an essential information service to Swiss Abroad.

We appreciate very much the support we have received from members of the local Swiss community in our campaign to save swissinfo! The CSA has two demands: a return to 6 Swiss Review editions per year from 2011, and maintaining federal funding for swissinfo.

Roland Isler, CSA Delegate

Editor's Note. Swiss Review - Stats and Facts

Back in May, the ASO conducted a survey and asked 2850 recipients how they would prefer to receive the Swiss Review in the future, either in print or electronically. Interestingly, they got over 1130 responses (which is quite high for such a survey) and 70% still prefer the print version. It also seems that the print version is read more thoroughly as 79% of the recipients read the whole Review from A-Z in comparison to only 46% receiving the email copy. Also, the return to 6 issues per year had the most votes. (Source: ASO May 2010)

This clearly shows that there is a strong demand for print media such as ours. Unfortunately, about 30% of all participants in this survey complained that they had problems with the timely delivery, mostly caused by a change of address. Therefore, make sure that you are registered properly with the Consulate. If you have missed an edition, you can also download the most recent issues on the revue website.

In regards to the contents of our own 4 regional pages, I have planned to change the format a bit. It has been voiced to me now on several occasions that some of the reports contain very localized information which are not that interesting to other readers residing in other states; also most clubs now have a website which members can read reports of their past events in full. What I plan to focus on from now is still to provide basic contact details as before but shorten the club reports and publish more stories and CSA activities. Of course, if you have any good ideas or like to contribute an article please let me know. At the end it's your publication and I want you to be one of the «99%» which reads the Regional Pages from A-Z.

With the Swiss Yodelling Festival in Interlaken less than one year away, practicing our competition song has become a priority, but we are also keeping up with a good repertoire for other performances, like the recent evening of Swiss songs and music at the Strathdon Nursing Home in Forest Hill, and our traditional participation

The Dance Group was delighted to welcome special visitors from Switzerland, Rosmarie and Viktor Schilter. Rosmarie is the regional leader of the Swiss folklore and costume commission of the eastern part of Switzerland. The Schilters gave up a day of their holidays to teach us new Swiss Folk dances. The Group embraced the opportunity to learn new dances.

The Unterhaltungsabend was a fun night. Kappelle Gruezi mitenand entertained the guests with popular tunes and sing-alongs. We were privileged to have live music for our performance. I would like to say 'thank you' to Consul General Mr. Meli and his family for being part of the evening.

To everyone, many thanks for taking part in making the night a big success. A big 'thank you' to the Swiss Club and Roger for their continued support. We look forward to performing at the Swiss/Italian Fiesta in Hepburn Springs.

The Swiss Club meets on the first Friday of the month at the Austrian Club in Ovingham for dinner, socialising and getting together with other Swiss people.

The Fondue evening is our "premier" event on the Swiss Club Calendar and this year was no exception. It was an evening filled with entertainment, music, and dance but of course and most importantly, with a delicious fondue produced by our own "Master chef" Martin and his helpers. Just shy of one hundred people arrived to a welcome drink at 7pm and after some "hoi wie gaht's" or "ha di scho lang nueme gseh". The evening started to roll on and between the food, old and young had a go at tossing a coin at a Kirsch bottle, danced to the Austrian music performed by the 'Jaegermeister band' or took their chance at winning one of the beautiful raffle prizes on offer.

In conjunction with the monthly get together at the Austrian Club, we have launched a "Freitag's Jass" following the meal at the Austrian Club. It starts from 7pm. For all who like to play Jass or like to play cards and would like to come, play or learn, you are most welcome to join us there on Friday.

On the 17th of September 2010 we will have our Annual General Meeting, and on the 10th of October 2010 we are planning to go to the Adelaide Zoo with a guided tour by Werner zur Eich (animal expert and zoo keeper).

Dear members and friends,

Again, our beautiful Canberra weather this year didn't let us down. It was just in time for our annual event, when it turned cold for the fondue night. Over 120 members and guests turned up to enjoy this traditional and delicious dinner, prepared as it has been for many years by our chef, Alois. Thank you.

As previously announced, we are planning a whale watching cruise at Jervis Bay in October. This is a special full day outing, partially subsidised by the club, it will be a great opportunity for young and old to see something different. More details on this including a booking form were sent to you in the July newsletter. If you have not made your booking yet, there is still time as long as we receive your payment by 31st of August.

Following on from the third successful Swiss/Oz Art Expo held at the Bondi Pavilion Gallery, Bondi Beach, SACA invites Swiss/Oz - Oz/Swiss artists to register with it so that information can be readily forwarded to artists advising them of any future exhibitions SACA may hold. Such a registry would enable greater lead time, thereby giving artists time to create new works. The exhibition attracted submissions from artists in WA, SA, TAS, VIC, QLD as well as NSW. The committee's thanks go to the artists for making this event happen!

I would like to acknowledge the late Paul Frischknecht's contribution to SACA and to the arts in general. As an architect, art was in his blood. He dedicated much of his life to enabling others to experience visual art and classical music as well as being passionate about Australian bushland.

Our next function will be a soiree to be held on Friday, 5 November 2010 at the Goethe-Institut, Woollahra NSW.

The bells rang out loudly as we walked through the entrance tunnel to the Bondi Pavilion Gallery, Bondi Beach for the official opening of the Swiss Australian Cultural Association's 3rd Swiss/OZ ArtExpo, by the NSW Minister of the Arts, The Hon. Virginia Judge, in April.

The yodlers sang at a Swiss Community dinner dance in May and honorary member, Zigi Achermann entertained with his Schwyz Oergeli.

We also performed at the Swiss Community fondue evening and had great pleasure in accompanying the Swiss International Lions delegation, ringing cow bells in the march through the streets of Sydney. This multicultural parade saw 1,000s of delegates from around the world in national dress on parade. Participants joined the Swiss delegates at the Casino for an apero and Swiss delicacies at their official function. The yodlers are delighted to welcome Marianne Pearson, Luc Streit, and Rudi Ott.

Our May bushwalk on the Blackall Ranges was a very enjoyable day. We all started out from the Lilyponds at Mapleton. The more energetic half of the group trekked down to Baxter Falls and up to Flaxton while the other half walked to Mapleton Falls and returned to Lilyponds where we all met up for a picnic lunch in the sun - as always the best part of the day!

Preparations are in progress for our National Day celebration where we hope to see a big Swiss crowd for a great night. We are also planning an exciting surprise function around early October.

We invite all Sunshine Coast Swiss, their families and friends to join us for these fun events, to enjoy good company, catch up with old mates and make new friends!
