Consulate. Mobile Passport Station in Melbourne

The Consulate of Switzerland in Sydney is pleased to announce that it will be present in Melbourne at the following address on November 19, 20 and 21, 2012 with a mobile passport station in order to collect biometric data (photo, fingerprints and signature) from Swiss citizens who wish to have a new Swiss passport and/or identity card issued:

Swiss Club of Victoria
89 Flinders Lane
MELBOURNE VIC 3000
On the second floor
www.swissclubvic.com

Should you want to take advantage from this offer, please note that you have to register and apply for the new Swiss document online on the following website www.schweizerpass.ch. Make sure you note under remarks that you wish to take your biometric data during our Melbourne visit in November 2012. You will then be contacted in due course with details for making an appointment in the days mentioned.

If you need other consular services during the visit in Melbourne, please send a written enquiry to syd.vertretung@eda.admin.ch stating your question and requesting an appointment for that purpose.

Swiss citizen living in Victoria, South Australia, Tasmania and in the southern part of NSW will be again personally informed by email.

In order for the Consulate to prepare the necessary files, please note that the deadline to make an appointment is Monday, Nov 12, 2012.

CSA. Summary Meeting 17 August 2012

Back in August, Beat Knoblauch and myself attended the Meeting of the Council of the Swiss Abroad in Lausanne; main issues were:

- Electronic voting on Federal matters for all citizens by 2015: Even there are still some technical hurdles to master, the E-voting is well under way to get implemented by all cantons by 2015 the latest. This will include all citizens and not only expats living overseas.
- Drafting of a law for the Swiss Abroad is well under way and is planned to be submitted to the «Staenderat» during 2013.
- Swiss bank fees for expats: This issue is most likely going to stay and might get even worse as other financial institutions think about following suit. The government though is watching the situation very closely and may consider stepping in if it gets out of hand. In the meantime, the advise to us expats is simple: «shop around».

The EDA has recently compiled a list of fees of different major banks: www.preisueberwacher.admin.ch/aktuell/00059/index.html (this webpage contains 3 PDFs to this topic - all are worth a read!)

Marc Godat, CSA Delegate

Special attention was drawn to the following three different stands, which are of interest to the Swiss Abroad and which were represented by attractive displays.

• Swissinfo: the premier source for all information on Switzerland. History buffs may be interested in the Swiss archives of the Second World War on the following website: <http://archives.swissinfo.ch>

• Unknown to many Swiss, there is an elegant «under renovation» Museum of the Swiss Abroad in Geneva, Chateau de Penthes, 1292 Pregny. www.penthes.ch The Museum is undergoing a total refurbishment and will bring it up to world exhibition standard. Completion is foreseen for early 2015. The Museum belongs to the Canton of Geneva. It should be considered for future visits. The Director in charge is Anselm Zurfluh, The Museum is also interested in publications of the Swiss Abroad.

• Foundation to assist the Swiss Mountain Farmers «Schweizer Berghilfe». www.berghilfe.ch This Foundation aims to assist farmers in difficult mountain regions in various ways, such as assisting with the purchase or extension of their farms in order to make them more viable, access, financial support and others. The Foundation appeals also to the Swiss Abroad for support e.g. through donation or last wills. Please contact directly for further information: Martin Schellenbaum, Legs / Heritages, Schweizer Berghilfe, Soodstrasse 55, 8134 Adliswil, Switzerland, Tel Direct: +41 44 712 60 56 or email martin.schellenbaum@berghilfe.ch

I have the sad duty to announce the sudden death of Marco Unternahrer, our long time choir member and President. Marco will be greatly missed not only by his friends in the choir but also in the wider Swiss community in Melbourne, where he has been an important 'bridge builder' between the different groups.

The traditional National Day Picnic at the Gembrook Sports Ground was again a great success, with a surprisingly large number of people braving the winter weather to take part in this celebration of the Swiss community in Melbourne. On the first weekend in November we will again be part of the Swiss Italian Festa in Hepburn Springs.

Dear Readers

The Christmas in July - dinner / dance party and the 1. August Celebration was a great success. Deputy Consul General Bernhard Furger came to Adelaide to celebrate the Swiss National Day with us. As we did in last year, we celebrated the National Day at the Torrens Rowing Club along the Elder Park and River Torrens. The Adelaide Alpine Horn players performed for us, a visit from the Bernese Mountain Dogs and their handlers and the Lampion parade along the river was enjoyed by old and young.

Dear Friends

What an exciting few months it has been. End of June we had the Fondue night where over 100 people enjoyed an evening filled with laughter and good food. Then we celebrated the Swiss National Day with a big bash, our shed in Gidgegannup was transformed to a comfortable hall and nearly 120 people had a wonderful time with fine food and musical entertainment and were treated to the bonfire of the century. It was a pleasure to see the children with the lampions. A moving rendition of the Swiss National Anthem was led by Richard and Freddy. I wish to acknowledge the committee and our partners for the effort to make the evening such a success. Also a big thank you goes to Jean-Pierre from Antoine's Prime Meats in Rivervale, I am sure the filet steak will be talked about for a while.

In September we had the annual spring walk where over 40 people explored the "Perth Alps" with beautiful weather.

We have another few exciting items on the list before the end of the year. The annual picnic is on the 28th of October. The rock throwing competition is always a favourite for the strong men and women. On Sunday of the long weekend in March, the Swiss Club has hired the picnic area of Bickle Dam. This is the only dam in the Perth region where swimming in fresh water is allowed.

What is left now is to wish all readers a wonderful festive season and a good start to the New Year.

Dear members and friends,

My wife and I have just arrived back home from a visit to Floriade. This flower festival in the nation's capital is held each year between September and October. It is one of Canberra's main tourist attractions every year. Situated by the lake Burley Griffin, it is a joy to your senses. Carefully arranged flower beds with a spectacular array of colours, is an absolute pleasure to your eyes. The many different scents leave no doubt, the winter has passed.

Talking about beautiful scents, our cooking course in September held over three consecutive Tuesday nights, drew a healthy crowd of chefs eager to learn how to make a Carrot cake, 'Alpermagronen', Kartoffelauflauf, Leberli and Christmas biscuits. Thanks to Peter and those who introduced a dish for helping to make this course a success.

On Saturday, 4 August 2012, 61 members and guests of the Club met at the property of the President in Tinbeerwah for the Swiss National Day Celebration. A great laser show put on by Bruno Kempster and a big bonfire was again a main attraction of the evening. A raffle, a fund raiser for the Club, was also held with many nice prizes. The Committee and members of the Club thanked the President, Hanni Kaech, and her family for making their property again available for the event.

The next scheduled function is the Christmas Dinner by Candlelight on Saturday, 8 December 2012 at the Yandina RSL Hall.

Our regular monthly "Ladies Lunch" on the first Friday of every month continues to be popular, with the ladies meeting at a different venue on the Sunshine Coast every month to catch up and have a chat.
