Panoramic train of the GoldenPass Line, Bernese Oberland

Palm trees, mountains and lakes.

A treasure on the railway: get on board the GoldenPass to admire some of the most beautiful landscapes in Switzerland.

After departing from Montreux, the train climbs above Lake Geneva. The palm trees on the shores of the great lake soon give way to the conifers of the highlands. Here, you will enter the Pays d'Enhaut region, the home of L'Etivaz cheese, where green areas await you for magnificent hikes. The journey continues to the Bernese Oberland and the Simmen valley with its farms decorated with sculptures. After travelling along the shores of Lake Thun, which nestles at the foot of peaks like the Niederhorn and the Rothorn, the train arrives in Interlaken, from where you can tackle the Jungfrauoch or continue on to Lucerne.

A ringside view

Travelling on board the observation cars of the GoldenPass means you are perfectly positioned to admire the spectacular scenery. If you choose the VIP seats at the front of the train, you will even feel like you are driving this exceptional train.

A taste of the Alps

To taste an authentic product from the region, stop off at Maison de L'Etivaz, where you will learn all about L'Etivaz, an AOC cheese with a fruity flavour produced each summer by craftsmen over a wood fire in around 100 mountain huts.

Spring fragrance

In the Spring, before boarding the GoldenPass, don't forget to climb up to Les Pléiades above Vevey, to admire the thousands of fragrant daffodils covering the fields. You can then return to the plains at top speed with a trottibike.

After leaving the GoldenPass in Interlaken, take the train up to Schynige Platte, a mountain that offers a breathtaking view over Lake Brienz and Lake Thun and the famous trio formed by the Eiger, the Mönch and the Jungfrau.
