Editorial:

What a summer over here in Switzerland! Temperatures in the high 30's and very little rain even triggered water restrictions in some areas. Hope you are all well and cool. Regards.

Consulate/Embassy: Position of Honorary Consul, Perth, Jan 2016

The Embassy of Switzerland in Canberra is seeking qualified candidates interested in taking over the position of "Honorary Consul of Switzerland in Perth" from January 2016. The appointment for this honorary position will be made by the Head of the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs of Switzerland. Before the function can be exercised, however, Honorary Consuls must be formally accepted by the Australian Government. Such acceptance is constituted by the exequatur issued by the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

Mandate: The Honorary Consul is the local representative in Perth of the Embassy of Switzerland in Canberra and the Consulate General of Switzerland in Sydney.

Functions: The Honorary Consul acts as an agent to the local authorities as well as business, scientific, cultural circles and the Swiss community. He/she will:

- Represent and promote the image of Switzerland.
- Maintain useful and harmonious ties with local authorities and the business community as well as scientific and cultural circles.
- Inform the Embassy and the Consulate General of business opportunities, of interesting projects in relation to science, culture and tourism and to promote Switzerland at events in cooperation with relevant partner organizations.
- Provide information to interested persons.
- Support the Embassy and the Consulate General to organize official visits to Perth.
- Promote solidarity within the Swiss community and its ties with Switzerland.
- In agreement with the Consulate General, assist Swiss citizens in need of help

Profile: You are a Swiss national with close links to Switzerland. Your professional activity is compatible with the mandate of an Honorary Consul. You have an established network in the fields of business, politics, science and culture as well as good contacts with local authorities and the Swiss community. You speak at least one Swiss national language fluently and you are interested in taking on the position for a minimum of four years. You are able to provide free of charge the infrastructure (office space, telephone/fax/internet access, administrative services) in order to carry out your official duties. An allowance will be paid to cover expenses in connection with the mandate.

Interested persons are kindly requested to submit their application (including a detailed curriculum vitae and a letter of motivation) by 30 September, 2015 to:

SACA: Swiss+Oz Art Expo 2015

Bondi Beach is the place to be in November to enjoy sun, sand, and - above all - to visit the Swiss+Oz Art Expo 2015 at the Bondi Pavilion Gallery. About thirty Swiss-Oz artists from far North Queensland down to Tasmania will show their works from 11-29 November 2015. Don't miss it! It's a unique display of Swiss+Oz community talent working with diverse materials ranging from drawings, paintings, photography, prints, paper-cuts, ceramics and sculptures.

The Bondi Pavilion Gallery is open from 10am-5pm daily, and is located within the Pavilion, right at Bondi Beach NSW 2026.

Nature has crossed our plans. Because of safety reasons due to heavy rain the National Day Celebration (2nd August) had to be cancelled. The bonfire put up by a group of strong men still stands in the paddock. Thank you to all who helped preparing, the bread donation and to the family who provided the venue! Sorry for all who missed out. We hope we can make up with another

Canberra Swiss Club: The story of the Crèmeschnitte Chörli (Vanilla Slice Choir)

10 years ago after the Swiss Club's National Day celebration, Peter Zimmermann felt it would be a good idea if a few club members got together to rehearse the anthem before the next celebration. The following year a small group of men rehearsed at Café D'Lish in Deakin. After the rehearsal the boys were spoilt with Peter's famous Crèmeschnitten (vanilla slices - now officially recognized as the best in town).

The anthem sounded good with the extra support. No wonder that a year later more club members, including women, wanted to participate in the rehearsals and of course the sweet treats afterwards. Singing was fun. The group decided to come together more often to sing well known Swiss folk songs.

Charlotte Hummel organized for the Swiss choir to participate in the Dreiländereck Konzert 2009 together with the long established Austrian and German choirs. This was a time when expert guidance was needed and the enthusiastic Geoff Roberts became the conductor with the talented Sandra Lo as piano accompanist. The concert was a success. The audience was intrigued by the freshness of the choir, the traditional milkers shirts (Sennechutteli) and cow bells and a milk bowl with a rotating silver coin (Talerschwinger) producing a unique Swiss sound.

Of course, the choir needed a name. Reflecting its origins, it became the Crèmeschnitte Chörli. Now accompanied by the dedicated Shirley Cramp, the choir has since participated in many Swiss Club events, at the 2014 Sängerkfest in Canberra, at concerts with the Austrian and German choirs, and has sung at the Swiss Embassy and at nursing homes. The choir rehearses regularly, having fun while singing with friends and bringing pleasure to its audiences.

Swiss Historical Society

This is my final report on behalf of the Swiss Historical Society. The Society was established in 2007 with the dual aim of researching the history of the Swiss communities in New South Wales and of publishing a book based on this research. During the eight years of its existence, the Society not only completed the tasks it was designed to carry out, but also managed to secure a permanent archive for the historic records of the various Swiss community organisations in this state; these valuable documents and photos are now in the collection of the State Library of New South Wales.

Earlier this year, the beautiful silk flag made for the Swiss Society of New South Wales – the forerunner of the Swiss Club of New South Wales – found a new home in the offices of the Consulate General of Switzerland in Bondi Junction, Sydney. And the Swiss-themed objects which were created for community events in former times, such as the cast-iron candlesticks and the wooden shields decorated with female figures in traditional costumes, are once again looked after and used as appropriate by the Swiss Club.

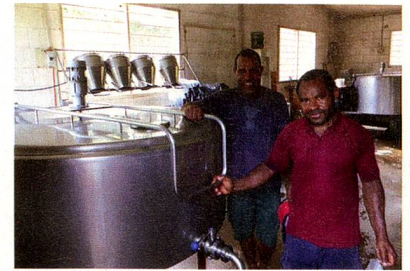

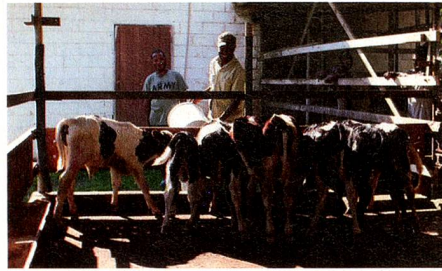

Although the Swiss Historical Society will cease to exist, sales of the remaining copies of "The Swiss in New South Wales: A History" will continue while stocks last, and profits from the sales will be transferred to the Swiss Community Care Society.

As I sign off as president, I would like to thank all the people who contributed to our project over the years, especially my hardworking and loyal committee members Armin Roth, Norbert Schweizer, Alois Kretz, Margrit Bachmann, Ursula Schappi, Elizabeth Isele, Peter Meuri and Tomas Drevikovsky. Thanks are also due to Consuls General Juerg Casserini, Markus Meli and Ernst Steinmann and their colleagues at the Consulate General for their continued support and to Sonja and Norbert Schweizer for making their home available for our meetings

AGM Wainuiomata: Hamilton, Taranaki and Auckland enjoyed a weekend of wonderful hospitality by the Wellingtonians. Thank you very much for your friendship, the great entertainment and the excellent meals.

Auckland Swiss Club

The Swiss market Day 2015 was a great success – with a crowded Danish hall and forecourt, and parked cars lining the roads for hundreds of meters. After the combined fondue and 1st of August event, our Kaffeekränzli at the Danish House will be on September 20. Come along and savour some wonderful Swiss baking, enjoy life entertainment and participate in a fun musical quiz, or create your own entry for the Great Swiss Bake-off. Neat prizes are to be won for the Bake-off and the quiz.

Taranaki Swiss Club

At the National Day celebration, we presented medals to the winners in the Swiss Society competitions and the karabiner shooting, as well as the Keglen and Jassen cups. We were so fortunate to have many entertainers providing musical, singing and drama items. We had a good crowd of 110 people; many of our regulars, some new faces and really wonderful to see many of our younger members. We look forward to seeing you at our Christmas function on the 29th of November.

Our Swiss National Day was

attended by about 120 people including 14 young children and 12 Swiss Kiwi Yodelers from Auckland. It isn't often we get to hear so many Alphorns in one room. The children, many dressed in Swiss costumes, participated in the Lampion Parade. Following the entertainment everyone enjoyed a big buffet of homemade Swiss baking. Many thanks for everyone for making this day so special and enjoyable. We look forward seeing you at our Fondue Evening in September
