Swiss Yodel Choir Matterhorn

After a difficult 2015 for the Choir, with insufficient singers to continue practice sessions and performances, 2016 looks very positive. We will start practicing on the first Wednesday in February and hope to be performing again later in the year. New singers are very welcome .

Swiss Folk Dance Group Alpenrose / Trachtengruppe Schwyzerguess, / Australian/Swiss Cultural Society

The very best wishes for a healthy and prosperous New Year. The Seniors had a fantastic afternoon at the Kaffeeklatsch in the Swiss Club.

The mystery trip in November was attended by over 100 guests. The weather gods made sure, that we could leave the umbrellas at home. A fantastic day for all.

Canberra Swiss Club

The last event from the Canberra Swiss Club was the visit from “Samichlaus” and “Schmutzli”. Many families came for the picnic to see the two visitors. “Samichlaus” spoke to children from all ages – and he also called some adults. Amazing to hear he had to say much the same as he did when we adults were children. “Schmutzli” could give all the children a “Grittibänz” and a bag with goodies.

The Swiss Choir was again singing at a nursing home. This performance became one of the very special events bringing joy to all, the listeners and the singers.

Hopefully you all had a good start into the New Year. Our first event will be a Film night in February. For several years we have been privileged to join the Swiss Jodlers of Sydney on their harbour cruise, so hopefully this year too. Also in February, the Multicultural Festival takes place in Canberra. Usually on Saturday the Swiss and German Radio Programs have a time slot where they broadcast live from the Festival. In March traditionally the Club spends the weekend at the coast.

Swiss Yodlers of Sydney

We are pleased to announce the establishment of our own website: www.swissyodlersofsydney.org

In November some of us linked up with the Melbourne yodlers in Wagga Wagga for a long weekend.

Once again Elizabeth Norrison was instrumental in making our time there most enjoyable.

Our alphorn players and bell ringers took part in the promotion of the Readycare Swiss October Fest in its Alexandria HQ. We also sang recently, at the Swiss Community Care's annual Christmas luncheon.

The yodlers welcomed and joined a Swiss tour party for dinner in a private home, which gave the tourists the opportunity to talk with expats about life in Australia. The tour party were welcomed by the Consul General, Mr. Ernst

Swiss Society of NZ

The Battle of Morgarten (1315) and other anniversaries in Swiss history were celebrated in style on Saturday 14 November. Our Ambassador David Vogelsanger and his team, as well as the Wellington Swiss Club, put on a great day to remember not only Morgarten, but also the Conquest of Aargau (1415), the battle of Marignano (1515) and the congress of Vienna confirming Swiss neutrality (1815). Over 500 Swiss and friends enjoyed the cultural and culinary experience in Lower Hutt / Wellington. The St. Bernard and Bernese Mountain Dogs were one of the many Swiss attractions. We thank all the organisers for making this day such a success.

'The First Swiss in New Zealand' – a fascinating history about the first wave of Swiss immigration in the 19th century, was compiled in 1967 by Irène Weber-de Candolles, wife of the then Chargé d'affaires. David Vogelsanger kindly got the booklet to be re-printed. The members of the NZ Swiss Society and clubs received a copy with their recent Helvetia Magazine. If interested in a spare copy, please contact the secretary of the NZ Swiss Society, nelly.steinemann@swiss.org.nz.

COMING UP: AGM of the NZ Swiss Society, Queens Birthday Weekend Saturday/Sunday 4/5 June, in Auckland. This has traditionally been a fun weekend, with lots of socialising, competition between clubs, lovely food, and not to forget the purpose, reflecting on the past and deciding on the future direction
