REGIONAL NEWS

Editorial

Dear Readers:

Riddle me this - a significant, regularly-occurring Swiss "event" is coming into focus this summer. Can you guess what it is? Hints: (1) It predates the modern Olympics by a century, and professionals who have created Olympic ceremonies are now working on it; (2) It has been logged into a prestigious international register, where it is listed alongside entries entitled "The Basel Carnival", "Avalanche Risk Management", and "The Art of Dry Stone Walling". Still puzzled and wondering? Perhaps this will help: (3) It's associated with vine-growing and wine-making ...

Whether you solved it or have given up, all will be revealed on page VIII. Enjoy! avs@telus.net

Swiss Canadian Mountain Range Association (Metro Vancouver)

We've completed the 300m shooting house renovation and celebrated the achievement on April 5 with an official ribbon-cutting ceremony, followed by champagne and a traditional raclette. A big THANK - YOU to all the volunteers who put in countless hours of work over the past 4 months. We now have a good-looking and bright facility, and shooters are hoping their scores will improve!

35 members were present as we opened our outdoor season on April 7. The day included a practice shoot on all the ranges, as well as the annual safety session.

Mark your calendars for July 27 so you won't miss the Swiss National Day celebrations at our beautiful property! Many volunteers are needed in order to make this big event a success.

We look forward to a great season and hope to see you soon. Please check our webpage www.scmra.ca for any program changes and for photos.

Swiss Club Thames Valley

2019 club activities officially began on February 22, when the many rounds of card games played in various groups throughout the winter culminated in the “Metzgete and Jassfinal” in Milverton. Prior to the card competition, people of all ages enjoyed a delicious meal featuring the typical fare of a good old-fashioned “Metzgete”. Congratulations to the 36 players who made it to the “Jassfinal”, and especially to Ernst Gubelmann, who won this year’s championship.

On April 6, the Swiss Choir Thames Valley invited to “An Evening of Fun at the Milverton Recreation Centre” (see top two pictures on the right. Photo credits go to Heidi Offak Gregoric). The event started with a concert, with tunes in three languages that ranged from traditional Swiss songs to modern classics.

A delightful interlude by the “Gregoric Brothers” (3rd generation band members of the “K-W Golden Keys”) followed, showcasing their amazing musical talent on the accordion, the guitar, and the baritone euphonium.

The social part of the evening offered something for everyone: a fine meal, specialty desserts, great raffle prizes, and - of course - lots of dancing to the tunes of the “K-W Golden Keys”. What an evening of fun! The choir will be spoiling us again on May 26 with their very popular brunch event.

In the meantime, Swiss Club Thames Valley Board members are busy planning a big event, the annual “Bundesfeier”. We are very excited to announce our special guests, the Ländlerkapelle “die urchigen Emmentaler” from – you guessed it – the picturesque Emmental in Switzerland!

We hope to see you at our upcoming events!

Fête des Jeunes Citoyens Suisses

Samedi 6 avril 2019, le Consulat général de Suisse à Montréal a accueilli une vingtaine de jeunes citoyens à venir célébrer leur majorité. C'était l'occasion pour eux de tisser des liens avec d'autres jeunes suisses de leur âge. L'événement se présentait sous la forme d'un concours interactif. Les jeunes ont ainsi pu visiter les locaux et partager un moment convivial autour d'un lunch. Voici l'expérience de l'une de nos invitées.

Important Message to Swiss Citizens Residing in Ontario

Dear Fellow Citizens:

The Consulate General is pleased to inform you that the Swiss Consular Days in Toronto will take place during the week of October 7, 2019. This service allows Swiss citizens to renew their passports without having to travel to Montreal.

If you wish to take advantage of the upcoming Swiss Consular Days in Toronto, you must apply using one of the following two official websites: www.schweizerpass.ch or www.passeportsuisse.ch. Make sure you input "Toronto 2019" in the "Remarks" section.

Your application must be submitted no later than July 30. Please note that the number of available appointments is limited; priority will therefore be given to holders whose Swiss passports are set to expire within the next 12 months.

IMPORTANT: Neglecting to update your current civil status (or name change) with the Consulate General may delay or even impede the processing of your passport application. The information must be confirmed by the competent authorities in Switzerland before a new ID document can be issued.

For detailed information about our consular services, please visit our website www.eda.admin.ch/montreal and select the desired subject matter under "Services".

CONSULATE GENERAL OF SWITZERLAND IN MONTREAL

Swiss Club Saskatoon

As usual, our raclette lunch on February 24 was well attended. Hot cheese on a cold winter Sunday is always appealing! Thank you, Rosa Nievergelt, for hosting us!

Our Jass (and other games) afternoon was held on April 7. As attendance was low last year, we decided to make it a family event this year, and that a Jass tournament would be held only if at least 8 players joined. We did get our 8 participants and are happy to announce the winners: Nicole Gerber and Emil Eigenmann. A thank-you to Rosemarie Eilinger for hosting us!

The June BBQ event will be hosted by Max and Dora Hug at their acreage on Father's Day, Sunday, June 15, 2019. This is in keeping with past BBQ events, which often coincided with Father's Day, and has become somewhat of a tradition for our Swiss Club!

We are pleased to hear that Consul General Pascal Bornoz and his wife Elena will join us on August 3, 2019, to celebrate both the Bundesfeier and our Club's 40th anniversary! The event will be held at The Legends, in Warman, SK, with a catered meal, activities for the kids, displays, a few short speeches, and a lot of reminiscing.

More information about these summer events will be published in our upcoming newsletter, or you may request them directly from the Club.

In early June, we will visit Exporail, the Canadian Railway Museum in Saint-Constant, QC. We'll have a guided tour through the site, as well as free time to visit the exhibits on our own. This will be followed by a supper at a nearby family-friendly restaurant. Adults and children alike should find this to be an interesting and enjoyable day.

Information regarding our summer picnic and barbeque will be sent out to members when available.

As usual, our Club will participate in the Swiss National Day celebrations at Mont Sutton. Once again, we will be asking members and friends to help out, volunteering a few hours of their time. We need many volunteers in order to make this big event a success.

The Club holds 5 or 6 events or outings each year, and we are pleased to say, they are always well attended.

New members are always welcome!

Swiss Canadian Club Guelph

In March, we hosted a movie afternoon of the Swiss classic Schellen-Ursli (in a release from 2015). Many club members enjoyed the movie, and the afternoon was filled with tasty treats and sweet laughs.

Our annual Wine and Cheese party on April 13 was also a big success ... but then again, what can really go wrong when both wine and cheese are involved! We travelled all the way to the Himalayas - that is by virtue of a beautiful slide show created and presented by two Board members who are travel and hiking enthusiasts.

Our upcoming events include striking it rich... or at least getting a strike at our Bowling Afternoon in June. This event will take place on Sunday, June 9, at 2 pm at Woodlawn Bowl in Guelph.

To help cool off in the summer, we're hosting the 13th annual Summer BBQ at a Board member's house. Everyone will be able to find something that makes them smile - be it the food, swimming pool, badminton, music, and - of course - the company of good friends. This event will take place on Sunday, August 11 in the Rockwood area.

Please stay tuned for other events later this year: the fall hike, our annual toasty night in cheese fondue, and the Waldweihnacht party.

Have questions? We're always happy to help, just email us at swisscanadianclubguelph@gmail.com.

We look forward to warmer weather and to our upcoming events. See you there!

Events - La Fête des Vignerons (Vevey, Switzerland)

After a 20-year hiatus, Vevey will once again host the momentous Fête des Vignerons, the (Vevey) Winegrowers' Festival ("the Fête" or "the Festival"). This traditional celebration of vine-growing and wine-making (in the Lavaux vineyards and in parts of the Chablais wine region) returns on July 18 and runs until August 11, 2019.

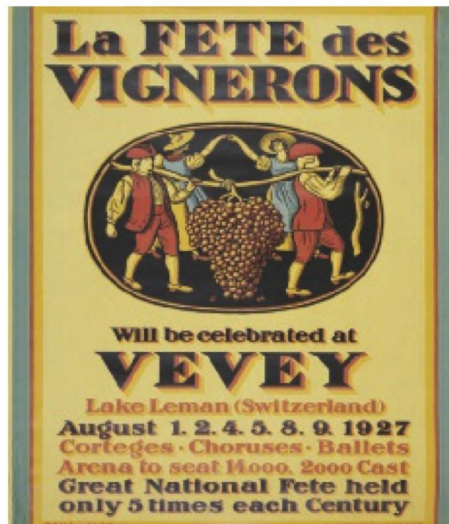

Notable: The history of the Fête des Vignerons goes back to 1797, pre-dating the first modern Olympic Games (held in Athens, Greece, in 1896) by just about 100 years.

Yet in spite of its long history, the upcoming Fête is only the 12th spectacle of its kind! The reason: The Fête des Vignerons may not be held more than five times per century, making it a rare and highly-anticipated event. Typically, the Festival is put on every 20 years or so - the last five were held in 1999, 1977, 1955, 1927, and 1905, respectively.

Adding to the cachet of this once-in-a-generation event, in 2016, the Fête received a UNESCO designation that put it on a register of "Intangible Cultural Heritage". (There are only three other Swiss entries: The "Basel Carnival", "Avalanche risk management", and the "Art of dry stone walling").

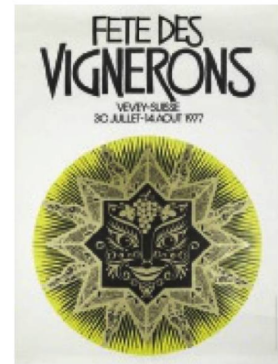

The 2019 Fête's main show - the pageant - will be staged in a large (yet temporary) open-air arena / stadium in Vevey's town centre. While the first Fête in 1797 featured a simple wooden platform with fewer than 2,000 seats, the 2019 Festival arena required 700 tonnes of steel to support five stages and 20,000 seats! And it has an LED screen built right into the main stage floor to generate visual effects.

The 2019 pageant is a massive and elaborate affair involving 2,700 actresses, 1,700 actors, 1,000 children, a choir of 600, and scores of volunteers. The pageant was created by a team led by Daniele Finzi Pasca, a Swiss actor and stage director who has worked for the Cirque du Soleil and on two Olympic closing ceremonies. By the way, drummer and composer Jérôme Berney, a member of Pasca's team, was born in Vancouver, Canada.

The Festival's show schedule calls for 20 live performances - 10 during the day, 10 at night - each lasting roughly 2.5 hours. The inaugural performance is longer, as it incorporates the Fête's all-important crowning ceremony (Couronnement des vignerons-tâcherons) during which the Confrérie des Vignerons (the Brotherhood of Winegrowers) honours the best winegrowers. The Confrérie's main purpose is the promotion and improvement of vine / wine production in the region, and it has been organizing the Fête since its advent in 1797.

Festival activity is not limited to the arena; far from it! In the spirit of la Ville en Fête, Vevey will host countless cultural, musical, and culinary events spread across much of the town. Several processions / dress parades will also take place; here, one might encounter prize-winning winegrowers, Confrérie members, pageant performers, or visiting delegations and choirs.

July 25 will be a first for the Fête - a day dedicated entirely to the Swiss Abroad. The Organisation of the Swiss Abroad and Swiss Wine Promotion SA are hosting a wine-tasting event that breaks with tradition. Rather than offering local wines (produced under the watchful eye of the Confrérie), the event will showcase a dozen or so wines produced abroad by Swiss expat winemakers.
