The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, together with the National Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies, form the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

The ICRC, which gave rise to the Movement, is an independent humanitarian institution. As a neutral intermediary in the event of armed conflict or unrest it endeavours, on its own initiative or on the basis of the Geneva Conventions, to bring protection and assistance to the victims of international and non-international armed conflict and internal disturbances and tension.

the first time in 1971, and in 1972 it was 55% of the total. The number of people aged 16-19 years in the labour force increased from 1971 to 1972 by 1.5 million. This was due to a regular increase in the number of young people leaving school and entering the labour market. The number of young people in the labour force increased by 1.2 million between 1971 and 1972. The number of young people in the labour force increased by 1.2 million between 1971 and 1972.
