This Annual Report 2001 is primarily an account of the ICRC's work in the field and its activities to promote international humanitarian law during the year 2001.

The issues and objectives for the year 2001 were presented by the ICRC in its appeals documents – i.e. the Emergency Appeals 2001 (covering its field operations) and the Headquarters Appeal 2001 (covering activities carried out at its headquarters) – issued in December 2000.

These appeals documents had been drawn up following the ICRC's "Planning for Results" methodology.

The present Annual Report 2001 is structured along the same lines as the appeals. It reports on the results of the planning according to the issues and objectives described in the appeals, and further presents the related financial statements.

PART 1

PART 3

The Annual Report 2001 is divided into three main parts:

- Part 1: reports on the results of the issues and objectives presented in the Headquarters Appeal 2001;
- Part 2: reports on the results of the issues and objectives presented in the Emergency Appeals 2001;
- Part 3: reports on the financial year.

The report is further completed by an introduction by the ICRC President, and an Annex.

These various parts are described in more detail on the next page.

USER GUIDE

A Message from the President precedes Part 1 and introduces the report.

Part 1, introduced by a general statement of the Directorate, contains a presentation of the results on issues and objectives presented in the Headquarters Appeal 2001, subdivided into the following main sub-headings:

- Institutional, presenting eleven sections that are of general concern to the institution as a whole
- Operations, covering three sections on support and coordination of operational policy and activities
- International law, covering the main legal issues the ICRC addresses
- Policy & Cooperation within the Movement, which covers aspects of the ICRC's policy and relations within the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement
- Communication, which covers the promotion of issues of concern to broad and specific audiences
- Human resources
- Finance & Administration

Part 2 covers results achieved in respect of issues and objectives presented in the Emergency Appeal 2001, i.e. the ICRC's field operations. The reports cover activities carried out and the results achieved relative to the objectives set for each of the standard target populations in a given context.

A World Map showing ICRC presence worldwide is presented at the beginning of Part 2, and is followed by an introductory text Operational Highlights and a general statistical overview in ICRC operations in 2001: a few facts and figures.

The reports on country operations are subdivided into the following main sub-headings:

- Africa (21 operations)
- Asia & the Pacific (14 operations)
- Latin America & the Caribbean (7 operations)
- Europe & North America (14 operations)
- Middle East & North Africa (10 operations)

Part 2 is concluded by two statistical sections that provide beneficiary figures for the various activities carried out under the Assistance and Protection programmes.

Part 3 presents the Financial Statements, i.e. the audited accounts for the financial year 2001 and additional financial tables not formally included in the audited accounts.

The Annual Report is concluded by an Annex.
