Kongresse

Xth International Congress of the History of Science, 26 August to 2 September 1962

The Xth International Congress of the History of Science will be held at Cornell University, Ithaca (New York), from 26 August to 31 August 1962 and at The American Philosophical Society, Philadelphia (Pennsylvania), from 31 August to 2 September 1962.

Communications on the following subjects are invited, and will be assigned to the appropriate sections:

- I. General problems in the history of science; methods, philosophy and historiography of science.
- II. History of Technology and Applied Science.
- III. Science in Antiquity.
- IV. Science in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance.
- V. Mathematics and the Exact Sciences after 1600:
 1. History of mathematics,
 2. History of physics and astronomy,
 3. History of chemistry (including pharmacy).
- VI. Biological and Earth Sciences after 1600:
 1. Natural history and biology (including medical biology),
 2. Geography, exploration, geology and oceanography.
- VII. Sciences of Man (psychology, anthropology, sociology, linguistics).

Oral presentation of these papers will be strictly limited to 15 minutes. An abstract, not to exceed 200 words, must be submitted in a clean typescript (suitable for reproduction) to the Secretary of the Congress no later than 1 May 1962. No paper may be read for the author in absentia. For publication in the Actes of the Congress, a finished typescript must be handed to the Secretary immediately after the session at which the paper is read. It must not exceed 1500 words in length. It is not necessary to present a paper in order to participate in the Congress.

Official Languages. Communications must be presented in French or English according to a provision of the General Assembly of the Division of the History of Science of the International Union of the History and Philosophy of Science. If a scholar wishes to communicate in some other language, he should submit by 1 July 1962 a full translation of his paper, which can be read for him in his presence. He may reply from the floor in his chosen language, and where possible arrangements will be made to translate his remarks. Those desiring translation facilities must give adequate notice to the Secretary of the Congress.
