News in Brief (contd.)

It is reported that Mr. A. Favetto, late manager of the Palace Hotel in Lucerne, has been appointed General Manager of the City Hotel in Buenos Aires, the largest hotel in South America. Mr. Favetto has a rather rapid career behind him. He began with a clerical position in the Hotel Baur Au Lac in Zurich, where he soon controlled the general organisation of the Hotel. Later he took up positions in London, Lucerne, Davas etc. gaining experience. In 1934 he took over the management of the Palace Hotel in Lucerne and the Grand Hotel Palace in Lugano, both Hotels belonging to the wellknown and old established Bucher-Durrer concern. Mr. Favetto is another Swiss who is carrying the good old name for reliability and staunchness beyond the bounds of our country.

++++++

Even the office of a German Censor has its humourous side. A resident in the Vorarlberg received a letter containing another letter which was torn into ribbons. It also had enclosed a printed form saying - "Unknown language, not censored." The letter happened to be written in the good old Appenzeller dialect.
