every one to be present. So on March the 7th at 10 o'clock outside the Ferry Buildings another picnic started, well maybe they didn't all meet outside the Ferry Buildings, there were a few stragglers who had to jump for it - now don't all look at me, I was born late - any way we all made the 10.15 Ferry.

A lovely day was spent with the Mathis's at their home, and although there wasn't any particular programme, there wasn't any mix-ups - some went for walks or swimming, and the sea was lovely, some games were played and enjoyed, and, of course, we ended the day with the usual sing-song, even in the bus you couldn't keep the younger members quiet.

A big Cheer for Mr. and Mrs. Mathis - Hip-Hip-Hurrah. (Can we come some more?)

Secretary,
AUCKLAND COMMITTEE.
