CELEBRATIONS IN NEW ZEALAND OF THE 652ND ANNIVERSARY OF THE SWISS CONFEDERATION.

TARANAKI DISTRICT.

We herewith wish to inform members and friends, that the Swiss Community in the Taranaki District will celebrate this year's National Day with a dance in the MANAIA TOWN HALL. This event will take place on MONDAY, THE 2ND AUGUST, and will start at 8 p.m. An entrance fee of sh. 3/- and 4/- will be collected. We are sure that the Swiss Community and their friends will turn out in force and will make this evening a success, as everyone will look forward to spend a few hours amongst countrymen and to have a real good dance to the music of "Ä züüge Ländlerkapälle". The arrangements are in the hands of Miss Dorcen Engelberger and Mr. M.J. Sattler.

From Wellington, the Swiss Consul, Dr. W. Schmid and family, Miss Hornlimann and Mr. E. Dickenmann have so far promised to be present.

For further information please watch the advertisement which will appear in the "Taranaki Daily News".

AUCKLAND.

The 1st of August is coming around again and the Auckland Branch are preparing a bonzer programme for the evening - one that you will be sorry to miss.

The chief attraction for the evening will be the picture gallery of - "Just the little streets where old friends used to meet" - photos of your old home town, the little church you and Hubby were married in, the shops where you used to spend your pennies on lollipops and so on. They are worth seeing. Items will be rendered by the more talented members among us and a well known personage will be
