SUBSCRIPTION - FEE.

Our appeal in the last issue in respect of outstanding membership fees has not been very successful. We know that it is only negligence or oversight by many of these members to remit the fee. We are therefore appealing once more to all these friends who have not yet paid the subscription, to obtain a postal note when near the Post Office and forward to the Secretary or the respective local district collector. Defaulting members will readily understand, that the Helvetia cannot be supplied unless the printing and postal expenses are duly compensated through fees due. We have soon no other alternative but to cease supplying our monthly paper, if payment of fees are delayed any longer. Please do not fail to remit promptly. DO IT NOW!

The Secretary.

NEW MEMBERS: We are pleased to announce the enrollment of the following further new members:

Mrs. Dr. Munro, Feilding.
Mr. J. W. Widmer, Tikitangi, Waitara.
