PROPOSED " ROLL OF HONOUR."

A young member of our Society, who returned from Italy not so long ago, made the suggestion that we should compile a list of all Soldiers, Sailors and Airmen, whether members or non-members of our Society. This proposed "Roll of Honour" would not only prove the Swiss people's loyalty to their country of adoption, but also be useful for other objectives later.

We ask therefore all Swiss and Sons of Swiss parentage to forward their names and the unit served. These names will then be published in one of our next issues. Please address letters to the Secretary, P.O. Box 85, Auckland.

The "NEUE HELVETISCHE GESELLSCHAFT" of Berne wrote recently that they propose to arrange a "Lesedienst". It is intended to forward to New Zealand free of charge certain Newspapers or Magazines, which are collected through the NHG among such people in Switzerland who are willing to supply such papers for transfer overseas.

Will all those members who are interested, forward their names to the Secretary and further information will be supplied.
