As representative of a Swiss firm, Mr. A. Furrer from Zürich, spent some six months in this country, travelling through the north and the south islands. He was amazed at the scenic beauties offered by this country. He also greatly appreciated the hospitality he enjoyed here.

Mr. W. Haensli was here as a ski instructor at the invitation of the New Zealand Government. Although the snow conditions were not too favourable this winter, comments heard indicate that the undertaking proved a great success.

Some Swiss people living in New Zealand also take a long awaited opportunity to pay a visit to the old homeland; among them is Jack Fischbacher, who proposes to leave for Switzerland on December 13th.

CHANGES AT THE CONSULATE OF SWITZERLAND IN WELLINGTON

The newly appointed Swiss Consul to New Zealand, Mr. Henri Blanchard, is due to arrive in Wellington at the end of January. He will be accompanied by his wife and a daughter aged four years. Mr. E. He will be succeeded by Mr. Oscar G. Oesch, who, accompanied by Mrs. Oesch and their two children aged 10yrs. and 12yrs., is travelling with Mr. Blanchard.

WEDDING BELLS

A very pretty wedding was solemnised at St. Matthews Church, Auckland, when Miss Luriel Kew was married to our compatriot Mr. Beda Bücheler. Congratulations from the Swiss throughout New Zealand, and especially those resident in Auckland are extended to this happy couple.
