Schaffhausen proposes in a report to the Budget for 1950 to reduce the deficit from Sfrs.918,000 to Sfrs.445,000. The improvement would be reached through the curtailment in expenditure and increase in receipts.

CANTONAL PARLIAMENT OF GRAUBUNDEN

In its Session lasting 14 days, the Cantonal Parliament of Graubunden has amongst other things finalised the budget and decided on the rate of tax for 1950. Sfr 90,000 increase in receipts from Cantonal undertakings, and reduction of Sfrs.46,000 in expenditure for printed matter and office utensils were other alterations.

The Special Commission of the Cantonal Parliament also wants to reduce the amount to be utilised in 1949 for paying off the War Debt from Sfrs.500,000 to 400,000 so that the Tax reserve would again be Sfrs.600,000. On the other hand certain increases in expenditure were decided upon such as hospitals etc. The Cantonal Parliament approved of these proposals and asked the Government to introduce a special savings program for the next Session of Parliament to deal with.
