WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

On Sunday, March 13th, 1960, a picnic was held at "Moonshine," which is near Upper Hutt. Because of the cloudy weather in the morning not as many members attended as was expected but those who did had a very enjoyable day.

The picnic spot is surrounded in native bush, has a large flat playing field and the Hutt River runs alongside. It is truly the "Picnickers' Heaven." Some of the more hardy members "braved" the cool waters, while others played soccer on the green and some took walks through the native bush.

The highlight of the day was the "Steinstossen" competition, which certainly was a test of strength amongst male members. It was a very close game, but Fred Fluher still managed to come out "tops" as he did at the previous picnic, with a Steinstossen of 17ft 11in! At 5 o'clock everybody packed their cars and headed back to the busy city.
